Water Board Asked To Spare Trees Along Kent Lake

By RICHARD LYTTLE

Water district, spare those trees.

That was the impassioned message delivered last night to directors of the Marin Municipal Water District who propose commercial lumbering on a selective basis in 2,300 acres of forest in the Kent Lake watershed.

The hearing was called, Board Chairman Robert Anderson explained, to sample public opinion toward the plan. The sample showed unanimous opposition.

Nearly 75 persons crowded the board's small meeting room; there was standing room only. The room was so crowded that one man was forced against the light switch. Almost every time he applauded a protest, one or the other of two panel lights in the ceiling went out.

Anderson said at the end of the two-hour hearing that he and fellow directors would have to take the proposed lumbering under advisement.

At the start of the hearing, Herbert Jensen of the lumber consulting firm of Hammon, Jensen and Wallen, Oakland, hired to make a survey of the watershed, explained the proposed cut.

He said a road would be built down the west side of the lake, about 300 feet above the high water line and lumbering would be done above the road. He divided the forest into four areas:

1. A section to the north near the dam that had been lumbered several years ago to be reserved for lumbering later.

2. A section on the west side of the lake, burned in the 1945 fire. The lumber firm will remove snags and pull out abandoned logs.

3. A section south of and similar to section No. 2 with many snags but also with some marketable trees.

4. A section at the southern end of the lake with virgin timber. Jensen said the lumbering firm should be allowed to cut in this area.

The water company cited a letter of two years ago from Charles Reilley, then county fire chief, who said the snags in the area represent a fire hazard and should be removed.

Reilly said last night that his concern was with the snags only. He said the means of removing them was something

HAMILTON JOINT USE REJECTED

County Going Ahead With Study Anyway

The Air Force has flatly rejected a Marin County proposal for joint use of the tower and other airport facilities for a parallel runway at Hamilton Air Force Base.

This report was made yesterday to the county airport committee at the Marin Golf and Country Club by chairman Eugene Trombley.

INCOMPATIBILITY

Eugene M. Zuckert, secretary of the Air Force, turned down the proposal "because of the incompatibility of general aviation operations and military operations."

Zuckert said that the denial came "after reviewing the study prepared at Hamilton Air Force Base and the request by the Marin County airport committee. He said that the Air Force plans to continue using Hamilton in its present role as a base of the Air Defense Command.

The committee decided to pursue study of a parallel airstrip in spite of the Air Force refusal.

SUBCOMMITTEE

A subcommittee was named to meet with Carl Hand of the Federal Aviation Agency in Oakland to attempt to secure air space for the airport, which would be built just east of the Hamilton runway.

Carroll Snyker, Jack Blumenfeld, County Administrator Alan Bruce and Trombley were appointed.

Supervisor William Gnoss said the county has allocated $5,000 for a feasibility study, to include such things as the types of planes to use it, the length of the runway, cost and whether the county can get help from cities like Sonoma, Petaluma and Richmond.

Algeria Near To All Out War In Power Struggle

Attempt For Stable Regime Is Shattered

ALGIERS (AP)—A power struggle that threatened civil war moved toward a climax today in this newly independent nation.

A factional split shattered attempts by provisional Algerian leaders to establish a stable regime.

Administrative work appeared to be at a virtual standstill. Thousands of Europeans who stayed on through months of terror before independence, converged on docks and airports to get out. Two passenger liners came to carry refugees to France.

Although the situation was marked by confusion and in some cases fragmentary reports, these were the highlights:

Dissident Deputy Premier Ahmed Ben Bella appeared to have the upper hand in western and eastern Algeria. Ben Bella returned to Oran, western Algerian metropolis, after a triumphant trip yesterday to Tiaret, 150 miles southwest of Algeria. Forces loyal to him were seemingly in control of Constantine and Bone in eastern Algeria. Bloody chases were reported yesterday in Constantine.

Deputy Premier Belkacem Krim, a Berber leader and signer of the peace accords with France, held forth in the Kabylie Mountains east of Algiers. He denounced Ben Bella and called for a massive rallying of support across the nation.

In Algiers, there was no sign of the distintegrated provisional government of Premier Ben Youssef Ben Khedda, which had moved in after independence July 3 to take control of the country.

BUREAU MEMBER

In Oran, a spokesman for Ben Bella said Mohamed Khidder, one of Ben Bella's chief supporters, would head for Algiers soon to study the situation. Khidder is a member of a seven-man political bureau which Ben Bella set up last week, in defiance of the Ben Khedda regime, to assume over-all leadership.

After seven-and-one-half years of rebellion against France and three weeks of independence, the new nation of Algeria found itself on the threshold of civil war.

TAKE UP POSITIONS

Soldiers of the Algiers "autonomous zone" took up positions late last night on the approaches to the white-walled city. From the Moorish-style summer palace Premier Ben Youssef Ben Khedda warned that the danger of civil war was real and pleaded for unity.

A group of ministers of Ben Khedda's government quit the capital and set up headquarters in the Kabylie Mountains, 65 miles east of Algiers.

BACK ON JOB

A-Protest Medic Returns Home

Dr. Monte G. Steadman Jr., 41, of Corte Madera, skipper of the nuclear protest ketch Everyman II, returned to his home from Los Angeles last night and resumed work at Kaiser Foundation Hospital in San Francisco today.

His wife, at their home at 100 Edison Avenue, said:

"We drove down and brought him back last night."

In Honolulu earlier this month, Steadman, head of the eye, ear, nose and throat clinic at the hospital, was found in contempt of a federal order for sailing into the U.S. nuclear test zone near Christmas Island.

Federal Judge Martin Pence fined Steadman $600 and set bail at the same figure.

Steadman at first was not going to seek bail but he left Honolulu July 18 when he learned his father, Monte G. Steadman Sr. of Wrightwood, San Bernardino County, was ill in a Los Angeles hospital.

Mrs. Steadman said the elder Steadman now was reported "doing nicely."

Kennedy Signs Welfare Bill

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President John F. Kennedy today signed a bill that contains most of the reforms he requested in welfare programs under which the federal government aids more than six million needy adults and children.

The new law liberalizes federal assistance for the state-administered programs. At the same time it puts new stress on rehabilitation services aimed at enabling recipients to get off relief rolls.

The most costly single feature, which was not recommended by the administration, will require the federal government to give states an extra payment of at least $4.20 a month for every one of the 2.8 million needy aged, blind and disabled persons on the relief rolls.

The new law provides federal matching grants to encourage establishment of day-care centers for children of working mothers. It also contains numerous provisions designed to encourage those on relief to seek permanent or part-time work.

RE-ENTRY TEST

X-15 Pilot 'Cripples' Plane, Takes Plunge

EDWARDS AIR FORCE BASE (AP)--An X-15 pilot, streaking a mile a second, crippled his rocket plane's electronic controls today to see what would happen if the same failure occurred in a ship returning from space.

Nosing over above the atmosphere, Space Agency pilot Neil Armstrong plunged downward in a series of roller-coaster hops—doing manually the tasks usually performed by the X-15's electronic brain.

Armstrong landed here safely at 11:35 a.m. after an 11-minute flight from a point over Mud Lake, Nev., 200 miles north, where the X-15 was launched from a B-52 mother ship.

The Space Agency said the purpose of the flight was to simulate emergencies that could arise during re-entry into the atmosphere.

To do this, Armstrong switched off his "haw damper"—an electronics device that automatically makes corrections when the plane's nose veers to right or left.

If this failure actually occurred during re-entry, it would be strictly up to the pilot's skill to prevent the plane from going into a disastrous spin. Armstrong, one of the Space Agency's top test pilots, created this condition to test how future pilots best could meet such an emergency.

By landing safely, he proved the X-15 can be controlled manually if necessary.

18-Foot Shark Seen No More

An 18-foot shark, sighted off Stinson Beach yesterday morning has disappeared, park rangers reported this morning.

All day yesterday, the lifeguard at the beach scanned the waters with binoculars without seeing the big fish.

Crewmen of the fishing boat Hurrican sighted the shark about 9:30 a.m. yesterday and flashed a warning. Park officials theorized that the shark may have been following fishing boats which had congregated off Stinson Beach yesterday.

Railroad Group Files

CHICAGO (UPI) — Five-on-Train Brotherhoods filed suit in U.S. District Court today seeking an injunction to prevent the nation's railroads from placing "anti-featherbedding" work rules changes into effect Aug. 16.

Tiburon Unit Asks School Site Study

Tiburon Peninsula Coordinating Council members yesterday agreed to ask the Tamalpais Union High School District trustees for a feasibility study of the Trestle Glen area as a possible site for a high school.

Chairman William Rafter said the council favors Trestle Glen over the proposed ridge site near Mount Tiburon since it would be more economical and have easier access.

It would require, he said, possible purchase of 15 acres of mudflats from the Marin Audubon Society to be filled and a change in the present routing of the state highway.

Racial Troubles 'Well In Hand'

ALBANY, Ga. (AP)—The police chief of this racially troubled city aimed a verbal slap today at Gov. Ernest Vandiver's threat to call out 12,000 National Guardmen if needed to preserve order here.

"We feel the situation is well in hand and have no need for him to alert the National Guard or any other military organization," said Police Chief Laurie Pritchett.

The governor said yesterday he would use whatever means is necessary to keep down violence as this southwest Georgia city quietly waited for an apparent climax to its racial strife. Negroes were mapping strategy for a series of demonstrations.

JFK Held Undecided On Tax Cut

WASHINGTON (AP) — President John F. Kennedy was described by competent White House sources today as still undecided on whether to try to spur the national economy with a tax cut.

One official said Kennedy's repeatedly stated position still is that he will not make up his mind until he and his advisers have had an opportunity to look at July figures on the state of the economy. The president made this point publicly at a news conference Monday.

The July figures will be available early next month.

The New York Times said today that the chief executive has decided an early cut in business and personal taxes is needed.

The president will propose a reduction next month if key members of Congress give him reasonable assurance of speedy action, a Washington dispatch to the Times added.

The story also said the allocation of the cut between corporate and personal income taxes has not been decided.

'U.S. Spiritual Life Hurt By Prayer Rule'

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Five senators declared today that the Supreme Court's school prayer decision opened a Pandora's box which could lead to an ever-increasing erosion of spiritual life in the United States.

Their statement was coupled with a demand that Congress either express its repugnance at the decision or pass a constitutional amendment to nullify the controversial ruling.

The senators—who expressed varying degrees of apprehension—were Sens. Kenneth B. Keating (R-N.Y.), John C. Stennis (D-Miss.), A. Willis Robertson (D-Va.), J. Glenn Beall (R-Md.), and Strom Thurmond (D-S.C.)

They testified as the Senate judiciary committee opened public hearings on a series of resolutions and amendments designed to invalidate the court ruling.

They were joined by Sen. Vance Hartke (D-Ind.), author of one of the measures before the committee. Hartke limited himself to discussing the ruling, however, and his resolution and did not go into the hazards of future decisions.

"I have a grave apprehension," Stennis said, "that the decision in this case will shortly be followed by others which increasingly erode our spiritual heritage."

WIRE NEWS BRIEFS From Everywhere

Nuclear Device Missile Explodes

HONOLULU (AP)—A Thor missile blew up and burned on its launch pad last night as the United States failed for the third time in four tries to explode a high altitude nuclear device over tiny Johnston Island.

Cause of the missile failure was not known and there was no immediate word whether the Thor was deliberately destroyed.

The Atomic Energy Commission said:

"There was no nuclear detonation. There was no immediate report of injury to personnel."

Revenue Boost

SACRAMENTO (AP)—A single corporation's 4-million-dollar-plus tax bill—reportedly paid under protest — helped boost state general fund revenues for the 1961-62 fiscal year 1.5 per cent above original estimates.

The Finance Department, which released the figures yesterday, refused to name the corporation.

It said the case may be decided by the courts and disclosure of the firm's name violate privacy laws.

Kovacs Estate Bought

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Actress Edie Adams, widow of comedian Ernie Kovacs, has purchased the main asset of his estate by paying $25,000 cash and assuming $1,949,395 in mortgages.

The deal approved in court yesterday, gave Miss Adams sole title to the California Racquet Club, a four and one-half acre property in suburban Palms.

Kovacs' estate was once given a paper value of 2.1 million dollars, but claims against it now exceed its present assets, court records showed.

Peru Envoy Leaves

LIMA, Peru (AP)—U.S. Ambassador James Loeb took off for Washington today to report on the military seizure of power, and the junta made it clear it was glad to see him leave Peru.

A statement labeled semi-official but emanating from the foreign ministry said Loeb's departure would tend to ease "existing tension between the two countries."

It accused him of helping to create "a climate of misunderstanding in Washington," which cut off aid to Peru after the military's coup last week.

Asked about the charges, Loeb told newsmen at the airport, "I have heard about the statement and the foreign ministry will deny it."

Soblen Loses Plea

LONDON (UPI)—Convicted Soviet spy Dr. Robert A. Soblen lost a plea for freedom before Britain's three-judge high court of appeal today, shortly after Israel rejected his request for permanent asylum there.

The last known legal resort left to the ailing, 61-year-old psychiatrist to avoid being returned to the United States and life imprisonment is a pending application to the British government for political asylum.

Skouras Steps Down

NEW YORK (AP) — Veteran producer Darryl F. Zanuck began his first full day as president of financially ailing 20th Century-Fox Film Corp. today with a call for sweeping reforms to put the firm back in the black.

Zanuck, 59, a Hollywood executive and largest stockholder in 20th Century-Fox, was elected last night to succeed Spyros Skouras, effective immediately.

Skouras was named chairman of the board.

Ranger Theory Hit

AUSTIN, Tex. (UPI)—A member of the grand jury which investigated the mysterious death of Henry Marshall was in strong disagreement today with the Texas Rangers' theory the man was murdered.

Marshall was the first Agriculture Department official to question Billie Sol Estes' cotton deals.

Pryse Metcalfe Jr. sent Col. Homer Garrison Jr., Ranger commander, a letter yesterday outlining his belief Marshall committed suicide.

Marshall, 51, was found dead June 3, 1961, with five holes in his abdomen.

Garrison said, "we've certainly not changed our conclusion, we still think it is murder."

Fire Routs Patients

NEW YORK (UPI)—In an operating room on the fifth floor of one of St. Mary's Hospital in New York's, a 54-year-old patient was having his stomach removed.

In the maternity ward on the same floor, newborn babies were being fed and nursed while expectant mothers were being prepared for delivery.

Then the fire alarm rang and moments later smoke began pouring into the delivery room and other areas of the maternity section.

Nurses, nuns, and attendants moved patients to safety. No one was injured.

Deal On MIGs

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—India has decided to open formal negotiations with the Soviet Union to buy and manufacture MIG-21 jet fighter planes, authoritative sources said today.

Reports of the negotiating team will be reviewed by Prime Minister Nehru's cabinet before a final decision is made to close the deal, the sources added.

Scientist Tells Virus, Cancer Link

MOSCOW (AP) — The odd distribution of a kind of tumor among children in a mosquito belt of tropical Africa supports the theory that at least some human cancers are caused by viruses, it was reported today.

This cancer in Africa occurs almost exclusively in a broad belt cutting across the tropics from the east to the west coast of the continent—the very belt that is the haunt of certain mosquitoes and of other insects called "tabonids," a Uganda doctor reported to the Eighth International Cancer Congress now in session here.

Dr. D. H. Wright of Kampala said he believes the disease is caused by some still unidentified virus which may be carried by insects in the area.

He described the tumor as a lymphoma, a cancerous process involving the lymph system.

It's a disease found most often in children 3 to 6 years old.

In most victims, the cancer primarily affects the jaw, but also may affect the kidneys, adrenal glands, liver, ovaries, testicles, thyroid and part of the abdomen.

"The tumor is not confined to African children," the doctor said, explaining that Asians and Europeans are affected.

These tumors comprise half the total childhood cancers seen in Kampala.

The sun loses four million tons of mass per second, but it is so enormous that its fuel should last for several billion more years.

Dashing Politico Has Double Life

CHARLOTTE, N. C. (AP)—William E. Cobb, North Carolina's dashing, 40-year-old Republican state chairman, was exposed last night as a man who has been leading a double life.

The Charlotte Observer and the Roanoke (Va.) Times revealed in copyrighted stories that Cobb, a Morganton lumber dealer, maintains a home in Roanoke for a common-law wife and two children, while living in Morganton with his legal wife and an adopted son.

Cobb dictated a statement to Observer Editor C. A. (Pete) McKnight in which he admitted the double life and said he would resign his party post immediately and withdraw as a GOP candidate for the state senate.

"All men make mistakes. I guess it would be unnatural if this didn't happen. I made my mistake and I'm responsible," he told the Observer.

Cobb, a dapper, dark-haired Yale graduate and Marine veteran of World War II, was elected chairman of the state GOP four years ago and promptly put the party into a position of real challenge in an otherwise predominately Democratic state.

Under his hard-driving leadership, the Republicans polled the highest vote for state candidates in its history in the 1960 elections.

Investigation by the two newspapers showed Cobb maintained a home in Roanoke under the name of W. Edward Cobb. There, he kept a girl identified only as Linda and two sons by her.

The two newspapers began their investigation after Cobb's picture appeared in a national weekly magazine, along with three other young Southern Republican leaders.

Neighbors of W. Edward Cobb in Roanoke noticed the resemblance of William E. Cobb to their friend, who traveled frequently. They reported the coincidence to the Roanoke Times.

Subsequent investigation disclosed that William E. Cobb made frequent trips by private plane from Morganton to Roanoke, and while there drove an auto registered to his Morganton firm, Morganton Hardwoods, Inc.

Reporters found the car parked in the W. Edward Cobb driveway.

Armed with these "coincidences," Observer reporters visited Cobb at Morganton Wednesday night. Leaving a GOP precinct meeting, Cobb invited the reporters into his station wagon.

"Let's stop kidding around. You fellows know the truth," he was quoted as saying. "I'm not innocent, but that girl up there in Roanoke is almost innocent, and there are children and others who are innocent."

Cobb told McKnight, "I hold deep affection for the mother of my two young natural sons, a boy 15 months old and a boy born in May. That's about all I ought to say.

Politically, I intend to resign from my position as chairman of the Republican party and withdraw from my race for the state senate.

"No member of the Republican party or any of my business associates had any knowledge of the situation that has come to light."

Mill Valley Man Beaten, Robbed

A Mill Valley man was treated for facial cuts and possible facial fracture yesterday after he was beaten up and robbed of $12 by two unknown assailants.

San Francisco police reported David Stovell, 32, of 30 West Blithedale Avenue, was in the Trans-Bay Terminal in San Francisco at about 1 a.m.

There he was taken for a ride by two men who knocked him unconscious and took his wallet containing $12 in currency, his papers and car keys. Stovell was treated at Harbor Emergency Hospital and released.

Phonics Versus 'Look-Say' Methods Split Panelists

Educators and parents, panelists on today's Radio KTIM "Marin Sounding Board," clashed today over the best method to teach children to read during a discussion on teaching phonetics in kindergarten.

The classic conflict between phonic and "look-say" methods came up as panelist Mrs. Lowell Ross, San Rafael parent, said: "The look-say method sets a pattern for guessing which continues in all subjects until the student reaches college. At this point he either takes a reading comprehension course or flunks out. I recommend that we stress phonetic learning."

Panelist Ralph L. Green, San Rafael parent and member of the San Rafael Curriculum Committee which recently studied reading teaching, asked: "Where did the illiterates come from who learned to read during the Golden Age of Phonics 30 years ago?

"We have seen that phonetic instruction has created lip readers and slow readers. That's why the schools did away with a very strong emphasis on phonetics.

Until conclusive research shows that methods other than the present ones produce definitely better results, I do not recommend a change in our teaching."

"Our state textbooks have done away with an emphasis on phonetic learning," said Mrs. Ceceilia Wagner, a retired school teacher who specialized in teaching remedial reading with an emphasis on phonetics.

"Every remedial reading clinic emphasizes phonetics. The children who did not learn to read under the phonetic system were taught the phonic sounds but not how to apply them. Phonics is a word recognition method, not a reading method. After phonics are taught, the child must learn to use his knowledge so he can learn to read."

Hugh Paterson, retired San Rafael High School mathematics teacher and also a member of the curriculum committee, said he wants teaching methods left to the teachers.

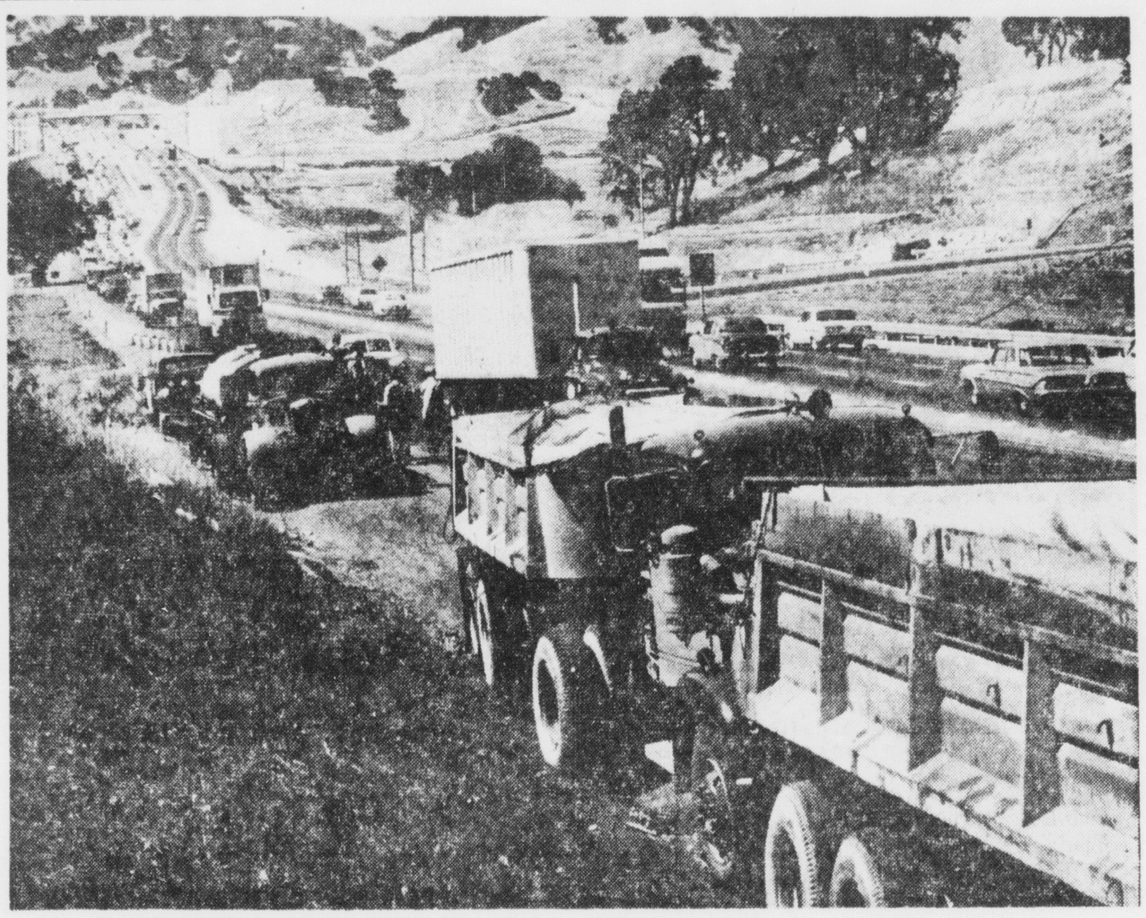
"No non-professional can look into a subject for several hours or read a few books on it and know what it's about," he said. "I think the decisions should be left to the professional teachers who are in the classroom and know the situation."

"The question is not phonics or look-say but how much of each and when. It doesn't make sense to me than one method can be used to teach all children."

Paterson's statements brought one sharp retort from a listener who called to comment: "You have the professional educator's view. Parents have to pay through the nose; and when they aren't allowed a say, it's time for a change."

Concluding the panel, which will be re-broadcast from a recording at 12:30 p.m. Sunday, Mrs. Wagner observed:

"One of the best things parents can do to help their children learn to read is to read aloud to them while they watch the words. We must help them recognize the sounds of the alphabet, this wonderful tool which help children recognize words and learn to read."



LONG AFTERNOON ON HIGHWAY 101

Southbound traffic on Highway 101 north of San Rafael slowed to a near standstill for more than two hours yesterday afternoon because of road work on Puerto Suello Hill near Lincoln Avenue. Cars were backed up bumper to bumper as far as Marinwood at one time during the delay, caused when a road-surfacing machine broke down in widening and paving of the southbound lanes. The State Division of Highways promised normal traffic flow through the construction area today. (Independent-Journal photo)

Boundary Group 1st Draft Starts

First draft of recommendations for re-drawing Marin County supervisorial district boundaries was started today as result of agreement on basic principles last night by the Marin County Supervisorial Redistricting Committee.

Assessor Bert W. Broemmel, chairman of the committee, said the report will be submitted to the Board of Supervisors about Sept. 1. He said the committee had arrived at rules for changing present boundaries of the five districts, based on population distribution and such factors as community of interest.

Water Board Is Asked To Spare Lake Trees

the water district would have to decide.

One strange development that occurred after the meeting was a revision in the figure of 23 million board feet, the amount given earlier this week by William E. Seeger, chief engineer and general manager for the district, as the total of marketable timber in the area.

Jensen, interviewed briefly as the crowd was breaking up, said his report calls for cutting just 12 million board feet. However, neither he nor other members of the board who have had his report since April, 1960, made any effort to correct the figure during the hearing. The 23 million figure was cited several times by protestants.

Jensen said it was the 12 million figure on which he based his estimate of $100,000 to $150,000 net revenue to the district over the five year period in which the lumbering is to take place.

Seeger said during the hearing that it would cost about $25,000 to $30,000 for the district to remove the snags itself and take other fire prevention measures, such as building the road, in the area.

The protestants thought this a small price for the district to pay if it meant saving the forest.

Other arguments brought out by the 19 protestants who spoke included:

Directors are thinking too much about watershed management and forest management with little or no consideration given to the recreation value of the area.

Marin County is not a place to produce good lumber. The soil makes for marginal growth and the trees do not come back quickly.

Commercial lumbering would mean a marked shift in the district's policy and should be very carefully studied.

Lumbering operations are a fire risk in themselves. The 1945 fire started at a lumber camp.

There is no such thing as good lumbering. It is either bad or very bad.

The water district can afford to pay for snag removal, and if necessary, the district's customers would be willing to pay a higher rate to cover the cost.

County Supervisor Peter Behr, among the crowd of standing protestants, told the board that it was not hearing from ardent conservationists only. "Those here represent 99 per cent of your constituents," he said.

Warren Raddatz, representing the Trio Lumber Co. of Fields Landing, Humboldt County, with whom the district is negotiating, said that his firm would be required to make payments in advance. After the meeting broke up, he said, in answer to the charge that Marin forests are marginal, that the proposed lumbering is economically feasible, "otherwise, we wouldn't be here."

County Fire Chief Louis Bloom said that the proposed road would be a benefit in fire control.

Right Things To Do
Under any given set of circumstances there are right things that can be done to improve one's position.
Now, for example, holders of good SBIC shares can take advantage of depressed prices to reduce income tax liability while retaining capital gain potential. These objectives can be accomplished by selling present holdings and simultaneously buying shares of other equally sound Small Business Investment Companies. The entire loss on SBIC shares may be deducted for tax purposes from ordinary income.
Attractive opportunities exist now in good SBIC shares, which are selling substantially below book value.
York & Co. through its SBIC department is particularly well qualified to advise investors as to the relative qualities of SBICs. The York organization has made it a point to keep well posted in this field.
If this suggests the right thing for you to do under present circumstances we suggest you contact any branch of York & Co.

ARIZONA WIFE FILES TO END PREGNANCY

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — The pretty star of a children's television program filed suit yesterday in the hope of gaining court permission to abort her three-month pregnancy.

Mrs. Robert L. Finkbine, 29, a Scottsdale, Ariz. resident, was listed as a complainant along with her husband and Good Samaritan Hospital.

Mrs. Finkbine is better known here as Sherri Chessen of station KTAR-TV's show, "Romper Room."

She discovered last week that a drug she had taken in the early stages of her pregnancy had been linked with the births of thousands of malformed babies around the world.

The suit, filed in Maricopa County Superior Court, stated "the total health of the plaintiff is such that the termination of her pregnancy is necessary for the preservation and saving of her life."

If the plaintiffs can prove this, an abortion would be legal. Arizona law allows abortion only when required to save the life of the prospective mother.

County Atty. Charles N. Ronan, Arizona Att. Gen. Robert Pickrell and Judge R. C. Stanford said they would try to hold a hearing on the matter tomorrow. Ronan and Pickrell are defendants.

Mrs. Finkbine said yesterday she doesn't know how much more of the strain she can take.

"I'm right on the verge of breaking down," she said. "I don't think I could stand up another six months of wondering about the baby."

Mrs. Finkbine, married to a high school teacher, has four healthy children. Her name had been kept secret until filing of the suit made it a matter of public record.

Deaths In Illegal Surgery

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Illegal surgery or self-induced abortions caused at least 70 per cent of California's abortion deaths in the past five years.

Hhat's one of the findings in a preliminary report issued yesterday of a study by the State Public Health Department and California Medical Association. It covered 515 of the 725 cases during that period of women who died while pregnant or within 90 days of their pregnancies.

More than 100 of the 515 deaths were caused by abortions, either natural in induced.

Of these, at least 70 per cent were either criminally or self-induced and "an additional number of the deaths are suspect but cannot be assigned as a criminally induced abortion," the department said.

Less than 15 per cent were spontaneous abortions, the natural termination of a pregnancy in the first three months. After that, it's called a miscarriage.

Almost half the women were more than 30 years of age and almost 30 per cent had five or more pregnancies. Less than 15 per cent died in their first pregnancy.

Marin Student Honored

Harry Holland, 390 Hibiscus Way, San Rafael, was among those honored this week by the office of the dean of instruction of Sonoma State College for high scholarship during the spring semester. He will complete work for his bachelor of arts degree and general elementary teaching credential next school year.

Investment Fund For San Anselmo Employees Told

Donald T. Wood of Greenbrae, former San Anselmo police chief who is now agent for an investment fund company, is trying to enroll San Anselmo city employees in his investment fund program under a payroll deduction plan.

In a letter to the city council, Wood is asking that the city controller withhold funds from certain employees' pay checks for an investment club.

Wood's request will probably be taken up at the next regular meeting set for Aug. 14.

City Administrator Douglas Flautt said Wood did not mention the names of city employees for whom payroll deductions are wanted.

The city administrator said that such a payroll deduction plan would involve more work for the city controller.

Marinites Help Select Architect

Two Marin County architects are included in a six-member panel appointed today by Gov. Edmund G. Brown to advise him in the selection of a new state architect.

They are William Stephen Allen of 168 Harrison Avenue, Sausalito, and Wayne S. Hertzka of 27 Rock Road, Kentfield. Both have offices in San Francisco.

Other members of the panel are Alf. E. Brandin, vice president of Stanford University, and architects Frank L. Hope, San Diego; Welton Becket, Los Angeles, and Mario Campi, San Francisco.

600-Book Drama Collection Is Ready

Mill Valley Public Library's new 600-book drama collection is ready for readers, librarian Dorothy Thomas said today.

It is a specialty collection, such as the Marin County Library's collection of art books.

Marin Population Up 6.2 Per Cent

Marin County's population has increased 6.2 per cent in the past year as compared to a statewide average of 3.9 per cent, according to latest estimates prepared by the State Department of Finance.

The July 1 population of the county was 166,700, a gain of 9,700 over the 1961 figure of 157,000. The 1960 figure was 148,800.

Los Angeles and Orange counties continued to account for a large part of the state's gain of 1,377,000. These two added 535,000 persons during the year.

provided to Mill Valley by the North Bay Cooperative Library System of which the library is a member.

With other theater books in the library, it brings the collection close to 1,000 books and plans are underway by the library board to further enlarge the collection with $500 of the Dorothy Canfield Fisher Award granted in April.

The new books, purchased by the cooperative from the estate of a Santa Rosan, covers numerous plays—both American and European — acting, directing, costumes and lighting.

It includes such works as a set of Daniel Blum's "Theater World" starting with the 1944-45 season; a set of "Best Plays" starting with 1899 and a three-volume set of librettos of French, German, Italian and Wagner operas.

Following a discussion by library officials yesterday with little theater enthusiasts Dr. and Mrs. Earle Marsh of Mill Valley, it has been decided to consider adding further plays, history of drama, multiple copies of plays for play reading groups and scores of musicals.

"One reason the drama specialty was given Mill Valley," Mrs. Thomas said, "was because of the wide interest in drama and the number of little theaters that exist in Marin."

NEW CITIZEN IS THANKFUL TO BE ALIVE

Yanks Saved Him From Death In Gas Chamber

By RANDALL GOULD

Filip Opler, newly natualized San Rafael businessman, is not only glad to be an American citizen but thankful to be alive at all.

Death took several hard swings at him in Europe where his culminating crisis was a train ride to the gas chamber. American soldiers stopped the train barely in time.

"But that wasn't the only close call," says Opler. "There was that time they dug six graves, five for men who were dead and the sixth for me . . ."

Opler now lives at 51 Billou Street, San Rafael, and is proprietor of the Marin Smart Shop at 1228 Fourth Street. He speaks Polish, German, French, Russian and English, but none seems quite adequate to the grim recollections which crowd into the setting of gay feminine gowns in his store.

Born in Sosnowice, Poland, Aug. 24, 1908, Opler was a son of a lumber shipper. War overhelmed his native place and although he had two or three years in a Russian-operated school, he considers himself mostly self-educated by reading.

When he passed his naturalization examination a few days ago his examiner was sympathetic and helpful after hearing of his struggles.

The family moved into Germany and became stateless. When Opler grew to an age when he could work, he served for a time in a lumber office, then got into an egg export-import business.

When World War II came along Opler was seized and put into concentration camp. Altogether during five years he was in seven camps, including the notorious Buchenwald and Dachau.

His first brush with death occurred in 1941, about a year after he was imprisoned. Opler fell ill with edema and his body bloated horribly with contained fluid.

"The doctor gave me up, for only one in a million survives," says Opler. "If I had gotten ill just two days earlier they'd have added my name to a list of 118 who were being sent to the Auschwitz gas chamber.

"After awhile it seemed certain I'd die. That is when my grave was dug. I was told that five graves were dug for five who had just died, and they dug a sixth grave because they thought I would soon be ready."

The camp doctor gave Opler three pills a day, but he feared they were poisonous and hid them under his straw pallet. When he was totally helpless, unable to work or even sit up, a fellow-prisoner said, "If you have to die anyway let me try something."

The friend stoked up a little iron stove in the center of the barrack until it was red-hot, constructed an improvised tiny sweat chamber around a bench, and started Opler on a rigorous sweating process.

"I thought I'd die right then, but my friend said, 'Sorry, you have to die anyway,' and kept me in there," says Opler. "I sweated out a gallon or a gallon and a half before he let me out and covered me with blankets in my cot to keep me from pneumonia.

"This happened several days. Then the doctor came with the camp commandant. The doctor looked at my eyes, felt my pulse, and said, 'It's a miracle.'

"The commandant liked me because I was a hard worker who had worked for him in the kitchen after my regular job was done. He said, 'We have to let him live' and he gave me food so I grew better and better."

Later the commandant caused a larger sweat box to be constructed and other edema cases were treated with success, Opler recalls.

In 1944 Opler had one of his most terrible experiences when he walked for two weeks, in 45-below-zero temperatures, from the Blechammer camp to one at Grossrosen.

"Four thousand eight hundred started the march and only 80 survived," Opler summarizes. "We went through ice and snow in the most bitter cold, people falling everywhere and being shot along the way. We wore such clothes as pajamas, we had no shoes, and during the two weeks I had for food only two pounds of bread, five pounds of potatoes and some coffee."

His culminating experience was when toward the end of the war he was ordered to the gas chamber, started for his last ride, and was rescued by the U.S. Army in Bavaria close to Munich.

Opler's surviving relatives had gone to England. He was helped by the Jewish International Relief Organization in Munich and given 80 marks (equivalent to $20) monthly while he worked in the upholstery trade and went to a business school.

Finally in 1951 he was able to get to the United States and joined two sisters in Pennsylvania. The best work he could find was in a junk yard.

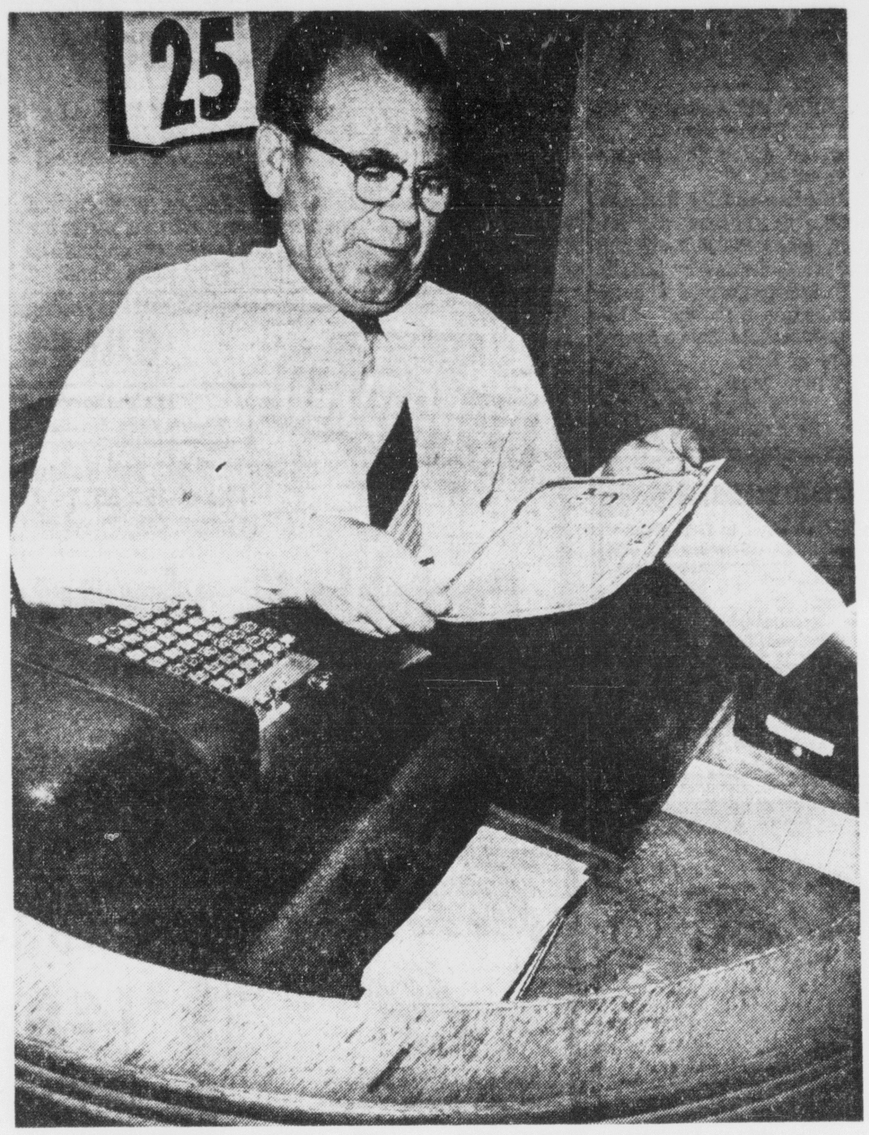
After four months of this, an aunt, the late Mrs. Eva Diner of San Rafael, who had started the Marin Smart Shop at its present location in 1928, took pity on him.

"This is no work for you after what you have suffered," said she and arranged his transportation here 11 years ago.

For several months he worked as an egg candler but he became engaged in aiding his aunt. When she died six years ago, the business went to him.

Opler has never married.

He has many friends. They joined to give him a party to welcome him to American citizenship when he got the good news.



A DOCUMENT OF VALUE — Filip Opler, who was once on his way to a Nazi gas chamber when rescued by the U.S. Army, is proud of his new United States citizenship. He keeps the certificate in the cash drawer at his Marin Smart Shop—and frequently examines it with pleasure. (Independent-Journal photo)

Payne Faces New Charge

Richard Garrett Payne, 20, of San Francisco, who was accused but not convicted of helping rob Bermuda Palms Motel last March, faces a preliminary hearing next Tuesday on another charge.

He is now accused of breaking into a parked car at Stinson Beach last Sunday and stealing clothing and a movie camera. The car was owned by Francis L. Carmichael of Beckworth (Plumas County), who was visiting relatives at Stinson Beach.

Judge Leonard A. Thomas of Marin Municipal Court yesterday set the preliminary hearing for 10 a.m. Tuesday.

Payne was one of three men accused of holding up Bermuda Palms Motel in San Rafael. He got off with a hung jury, after a trial last April.

Sen. Richards To Be Guest At Democrat Picnic

State Sen. Richard Richards will be the honored guest at the annual Democratic family picnic at Rancho Nicasio from noon to 7 p.m.

Besides swimming, picnic games, baseball and entertainment by the singing Balladeers there will be a barbecue featuring fresh ocean salmon and corn on the cob.

Peter Allen Smith, Democratic Central Committee chairman, said: "I urge all Democrats to turn out for this one large party for the whole family. They will not only have a good time and a great dinner but will be helping to keep our county headquarters open."

Nick Kobseff is chairman of the picnic.

Information may be obtained from Marin Democratic Headquarters.

Ball Of Fire Levels Homes

BERLIN, N.Y. (UPI)—A runaway propane gas truck overturned last night and exploded in this tiny community like a gigantic bomb.

The truckdriver was killed. More than 20 persons were injured. The blast levelled 11 homes, a church and a garage.

Fire rained through the air and turned a mother, her child and a man into torches.

The driver, identified by state police as Robert J. McLucas, 40, of Pomeroy, Pa., was hurled from the cab of the truck which was carrying compressed propane gas.

One witness described it this way:

"I was at the bottom of the hill when the truck jackknifed and it blew. There was just a big ball of flame and then all I seen was a big bunch of flames the whole width of the town."

One woman called it "a ball of fire rolling down the street."

The flames cut a deadly swath 200 yards wide for a distance of three football fields.

A mother and her child ran screaming with their clothes in flames. Another shrieking man ran and rolled down the road trying to extinguish his burning clothing.

Destroyed was a 165-year-old church. Cement steps were the only things remaining where some houses stood.

Flames leaped one house and gutted a garage and two buses in it.

Ambulances, fire equipment and rescue units from as far away as Pittsfield, Mass. rushed to this eastern New York community near the Vermont border.

The injured were rushed to hospitals here, in Troy, N.Y. and Bennington, Vt. Ambulances made several 40-mile trips to Troy.

Rescuers searched for more possible victims.

City Hall Riot Police Figure Granted Leave

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Inspector Michael Maguire, the police officer who ordered water hoses turned on demonstrators in San Francisco City Hall, May 13, 1960, was granted a disability leave yesterday for psychiatric reasons.

The city retirement board unanimously voted to grant Maguire's request after hearing appointed psychiatrist Dr. Alfred Auerback report that the officer suffered from anxiety tension.

The 1960 demonstrations were against the House Committee of Un-American Activities, which was holding hearings in city hall.

Dr. Auerback said Maguire was emotionally disturbed now, but could be returned to active duty.

The psychiatrist said Maguire was "quite sensitive to rejection," and taunting telephone calls made the inspector fear he would lose his friends.

Prince Edward County Schools Ordered Open

RICHMOND, Va. (UPI)—A federal judge today ordered Prince Edward County, Va. to re-open its public schools by Sept. 7. The county abandoned public education in 1959 to avoid integration.

"The school board of Prince Edward County is herewith directed to complete plans for the admission of pupils in the elementary and high schools of the county without regard to race or color and to receive and consider applications to this end at the earliest practical date," said U.S. District Judge Oren R. Lewis in his ruling.

Prince Edward County, an original defendant in the Supreme Court's historic case, closed its entire school system in the face of a federal court desegregation order in 1959.

Since then, most of the county's 1,300 white children have been attending private schools set up in the county while most of the 1,700 Negro children have gone without formal education.

Liquor Hideout Or A Fallout Shelter?

BRUNSWICK, Ga. (AP)—A 62-year-old man was charged with violating state liquor laws when police found 49 gallons of illicit whisky hidden beneath his doghouse.

Nine-Foot Dike For Marinship Area Suggested

A nine-foot dike surrounding Marinship's waterfront was suggested to Sausalito planning commissioners last night by William E. Spangle Jr. in his proposed Marinship plan.

The purpose would be to keep water out at high tides and to provide a permanent shoreline.

Complete fill of the Marinship area would be the alternate choice. The earth dike would be nine feet above mean sea level and could have a walkway on top. He gave no estimate of cost.

The presentation before about 40 people, mainly Marinship property owners, also included recommendations that the bulkhead line be reduced by several hundred feet and that building heights be raised to 50 feet from 32 feet.

The commission set a public hearing for the plan Aug. 22 and recommended to the city council that reactions be sought from the Marin County Planning Commission, Army Corps of Engineers and the State Water Pollution Control Board.

Objections to reduction of the bulkhead line were raised by Wallace S. Meyers, representing Donlon Arques, and James Halley, representing Ellis Lando.

Spangle reasoned that moving the line would make building more feasible by reducing the amount of fill needed. He said it would also give more deep water.

Spangle said raising building heights would permit a higher concentration of land use.

Halley asked the city to ask the Army Engineers if they might be getting rid of their incinerator, which is no asset to his client's property if zoned for apartments under the law.

Spangle explained that the Marinship plan would involve waterfront and apartment use along the waterfront and commercial and industrial along Bridgeway.

Porperty owner Russell H. Papenhausen urged the commission to solve the north-south road situation.

In other action commissioners recommended approval of use permits to Bay Counties Finance Co. and Marinship Enterprises Inc. for a Marinship shopping center.

They also recommended that Sausalito retain a major access at Rodeo Avenue and that the city engineer investigate two additional routes, one down to the hill from Highway 101, meet Nevada Street, then Bridgeway, and the second down to Woodward Avenue to Easterby Street and Bridgeway.

Marin Artists Win Fair Awards

Awards have been won by two Marin County artists in the California State Fair Art Show.

Their works will be on display with 800 others during the State Fair in Sacramento, Aug. 29-Sept. 9.

Winners from Marin County are: Jon Sutton, Sausalito, hand printed textiles, second prize; Kamma Zethraus, Kentfield, weaving, stitchery, honorable mention.

Two of the paintings have been selected as best in the show and have been purchased by the State Fair to be added to the $80,000 traveling exhibition which will be loaned to schools and museums during the next year.

Sightseeing Buses To Increase Fares

A 46-cent increase in fares for a sightseeing bus tour of Oakland, Muir Woods and the San Francisco bridges has been granted by the California Public Utilities Commission to the Gray Line, Inc.

The present $6.59 fare was hiked to $7.05 and similar increases were granted for seven other tours offered by the bus company.

29-Year-Old Greenbrae Woman Missing From Home Two Weeks

A 29-year-old Greenbrae woman, separated from her husband, has been missing from her home for almost two weeks, her father reported to the sheriff yesterday.

Her purse, found mysteriously at a San Rafael shoe store last Tuesday, was the only clue on the whereabouts of Nanci Boyer Chambers, who lived with her father at 1 Corte Cordova in Greenbrae.

The father, Ralph O. Boyer described Mrs. Chambers as 5 feet 8 inches tall, 150 pounds, wearing black capris, sleeveless flowered blouse, short white jacket and sandals. She has brown hair and blue eyes. On July 13, she left on a date with a man known only as Charlie. The man is about 40, 160 pounds, has brown hair, and may be a house painter.

On Tuesday, Leon Netboy of Netboy's store in San Rafael called Boyer to report that the woman's black purse had been left in the stockroom of the store. Netboy said the only person he had seen in the stockroom that day was a young woman about 5 feet tall, 100 pounds, possibly of Spanish descent.

The woman's identification papers were in the purse, but there was no wallet inside.

Boyer told Deputy Sheriff Ernest Nielsen that his daughter is separated from William F. Chambers, whose last known address is Shellville in Sonoma County.

NEW APARTMENTS SET FOR TIBURON

Construction is expected to begin next month on the first five buildings of a planned 2.5-million-dollar apartment complex in Tiburon.

The 114-apartment development on Red Hill, east of the Reed School, on a seven-acre site above the Marinero subdivision, was planned last year and approved in November by the Marin County Planning Commission.

Completion of the first units was expected this summer. Permits for construction of four six-unit apartment buildings and one 12-unit building were granted last week by the county building inspector.

Developers of the project are Gordon French, Jay Meyer and John M. Grubb, all of Oakland.

A total of 36 low-rise buildings are planned. All apartments will have separate entrances and views of the bay and San Francisco, developers say. Oak trees on the hillside site above Lyford Drive are to be preserved and integrated with landscaping which will include decks, a swimming pool and cabana area.

Value of the five buildings for which permits have been granted is estimated at $447,955.

Melodrama Set In Corte Madera

A Civil War melodrama will be presented by the "Mellerdrammer Theater" beginning Aug. 3 in the Corte Madera Recreation Center.

"The Rebel's Revenge or Chicanery on the Chattahoochee," will be performed every Friday and Saturday night at 8:30 p.m. during August in a cabaret setting. The new Mellerdrammer Theater is sponsored by the Marin Theater Institute of San Rafael and the Corte Madera Lions Club.

The melodrama, directed by Walter O. Jensen, will be followed by a musical revue, featuring Gay Nineties vaudeville routines. Included in the melodrama cast are Robert Beck, Judy Paplow and Al Flower.

Larkspur Council Approves Plan For Grading Of Plaza

A four-man Larkspur city council got mired in the 17-acre Larkspur plaza project last night but managed early today to approve an amended grading plan and authorize payment of more than $70,000 in contractors bills.

Larkspur Plaza, private project under an assessment district bird-dogged by the city, calls for 150 apartments and a shopping center on a stretch of former marshland near Magnolia Avenue and Doherty Drive.

Councilman Robert J. Smith dissented in the 3-1 vote.

Smith and Councilman Lesley A. Daveler questioned to R. B. Monroe, representing the project, and city mgr. Ronald E. Piper about the plaza plan.

Councilman Neil R. Brixon was absent.

Smith opposed the approval pending opinion from City Atty. Samuel W. Gardiner regarding the city's control over height of fill in future years.

Daveler balked on more technical grounds and also for a time insisted that improvements should not be approved pending subdivision of the area. Later he dropped his objections.

A large part of the area now is filled to about 8 feet above sea level, Piper told the council in urging a "yes" vote.

After approving the grading plan the council authorized a progress payment to L. C. Smith of San Mateo of $30,766, as well as about $40,000 to five subcontractors.

In other actions the Larkspur council:

1. Passed an ordinance setting a $125 fee for new connections to the city sewer system.

2. Voted to raise $121,210 by property taxes in fiscal 1963 to operate the city and pay bonded indebtedness.

3. Approved installation of five mercury street lights on Doherty Drive.

4. Accepted financial report for fiscal 1962 in which Piper said expenses exceeded the 1962 budget by $2,000.

5. Delayed consideration of a stop sign at La Cuesta Drive and Paseo Drive until next meeting and adjourned until 8 p.m. Wednesday.

Councilmen Turn Down Split-Lot Request

Larkspur city councilmen, battered by two hours of protest from Chevy Chase residents, finally agreed to overrule the city planning commission and vote down a recommended split of a 13,800 square foot lot.

San Francisco designer Norman Gilroy, representing an unknown client, said the lot had an hour-glass shape and a split was the only practical way to handle it for development.

Half a dozen residents of the area boo'd Gilroy so loudly that Mayor James J. Lienkaemper had to bang his gavel for order.

The lot is located on the boundaries of the Chevy Chase district, and the Baltimore district.

The appeal was voted 4-0 on motion of Councilman Robert J. Smith, seconded by councilman Lesly A. Daveler.

Leading spokesmen demanding overruling of the split were former councilman Ashley Lee Stow of 11 Ardmore Road and George A. Roosevelt of 70 Wiltshire Avenue, "mayor of Chevy Chase."

They protested that granting the split into lots of 7,070 and 6,730 square feet in an area where lots are "10,000 square feet to 12,000 and 18,000 square feet to an acre and a half" would greatly depreciate values of existing residences. The zoning ordinance calls for minimum size of 7,500 square feet in the area.

Stow complained the planning commission decision of July 10 was made with two commissioners (Vaughn Marker and David Scott) absent.

He contended "misinformation" was submitted to the commission and said he was sure that if all five commissioners had been present and "all the evidence was in," the body would have denied the split.

Rosselet, complained that the commission decision was "not playing the game according to the rules."

Gilroy contended the shape of the present lot would require erection of an "attenuated" structure if he had to build on a thin section in the approximate center.

The land is owned by Gordon Rowe, formerly of Larkspur and now of San Francisco.

Articles Filed By Marin Bank

Articles of incorporation of the Bank of Marin, recently authorized for downtown San Rafael, have been filed with Secretary of State Frank M. Jordan in Sacramento.

The articles authorize capitalization of three million dollars. Initial capitalization will be one million dollars, as specified in the bank's application to the California State Banking Department, said W. P. Murray Jr., one of the organizers.

Stock in the corporation is now being sold at $20 per share, said Murray.

"A policy has been established by the organizers and proposed directors," said Murray, "to distribute the stock as widely as possible throughout Marin County in keeping with the independent, home-owned nature of the new institution."

A tentative date of Aug. 20 has been set for termination of the subscription period.

Organizers include A. J. Bianchi, West Marin dairyman; Sidney Braverman, president of Braverman's Inc.; Forrest B. Brown, president of the Hutchinson Co. of Greenbrae; Lawrence P. McNear, president McNear Brick Co.; Graham McPhail, president McPhail's Inc.; Donald P. Murray and W. P. Murray Jr.

Victim Of Crash Condition Good

Fern Ida Lesca of San Francisco, a passenger in her husband's car when it was hit on the Waldo Grade Tuesday afternoon, was in "good" condition today at the Hahnemann Hospital in San Francisco.

Hector Lesca's northbound car was hit by a truck driven by Joseph A. Spanier of Burlingame. The collision tied up commute traffic for more than an hour.

Distillery Apeal Is Rejected By County Supervisors 2-To 2

A $10,500 appeal by American Distilling Co. against county assessment of nearly 37,000 barrels of aging rye and bourbon whisky failed by a tie vote yesterday after hearing by Marin County supervisors sitting as a board of equalization. It was the biggest contested item this year.

At the request of the company's attorneys. Supervisor Supervisor Peter Behr disqualified himself on ground that he had used as a campaign point against his predecessor J. Walter Blair the fact that Blair put through a $12,000 tax cut for the Sausalito distillers last year. Blair was subsequently recalled.

A ruling by county counsel made the resultant tie vote a victory for Assessor Bert W. Broemmel because it was found that an appeal must be backed by three votes to succeed.

Other members voted the same as last year—Supervisors William D. Fusselman and George Ludy on behalf of the company's contention that distilling is a unique industry in which special consideration should be given to the charred barrels containing the whiskey, Walter R. Castro and William Gnoss for the assessor's fair market valuation of $2,108,458.

Attorneys for the distillery again presented arguments heard in last year's appeal which saved the company $12,000, and in 1960 when Broemmel won by 4-1 vote with aid of former supervisors Vera Schultz and James Marshall.

They sought a reduction of $649,000 in total value, or about $150,000 in assessed value, on the ground that the company shouldn't pay for full value of the barrels each of the four years of aging, but should prorate it.

Broemmel said that his valuation figure was the one carried on the company's own books. This includes $865,411 as the distiller's cost for 36,826 barrels at $23.50 per barrel. They may be used only for one aging.

John H. Keith, chief of the Division of Assessments Standards of the State Board of Equalization, endorsed Marin County's system, said Broemmel. American Distillers' Sausalito operation employs 125 persons.

The case culminated current equalization hearings.

Selection Of Books For Sausalito Set

Book selection at the Sausalito Public Library is to be channeled through the Friends of the Library, trustees decided last night.

The Friends of the Library will be asked to form an advisory group to read reviews and suggest books to be purchased by librarian Josephine Ripley.

The reason for the change, according to Mrs. George C. Cummins, board president, is that "there has been some question as to whether these books (those now being selected) are the best suited for Sausalito readers."

It was anonunced that Mrs. Dolly Georgetti has been named fulltime children's librarian. She has been working parttime.

Dr. Thomas J. Mannell, trustee, resigned. He has a two-year grant to study pulmonary diseases in London.

SERVING ALL OF MARIN COUNTY

12 EDITORIAL PAGE Thursday, July 26, 1962 San Rafael, Calif.

TODAY'S EDITORIAL

Cryptic Blast At Civic Center By Engineers Is Disservice

The people of Marin County are certainly most interested in whether their new Civic Center is earthquake-proof or not. They are already saddled with a county old people's home which is not and are having to do something about that.

But to have the Structural Engineering Assn. of Northern California come along at this point and throw up scare clouds about the Civic Center is an act we neither understand nor appreciate.

Where have they been all this time?

Certainly Marin's new Civic Center has never been a secret; certainly its design and designer have been hashed, rehashed and powdered, not only for months, but years.

Why then should this well-known association come along at this time, just weeks before the building's dedication, with such a cryptic condemnation.

The structural engineers declared "it was their understanding" that the civic center "has never been structurally reviewed by the local building department or an affiliated agency . . . " They "strongly recommended" that it should be.

Haven't they any more reliable facts than "their understanding"? Did they bother to pick up the phones and call the county's public works office and ask if the plans had been reviewed?

What right have they, after all this time, to come in here and tell our engineer, architect and supervisors that our building officials haven't done an obviously necessary part of their job?

There could be, in our estimation, only one such right; that would be the right to let the people of Marin know that they aren't getting what they are paying for or that the structure which they are condemning by inference, is in fact unsafe.

Does the association have such information? If so, we want to hear it now—right away—let's not wait two or three more years.

We aren't too upset, as is Architect Aaron Green, that the engineers are sticking their noses into somebody else's business. We think they should speak out when they have information. However, they should speak out when their information can do some good, not a couple of years later.

But, if the whole idea of the letter from the engineers is to cast doubt about the building and its creator, we think the association is not only doing Marin a disservice, they are doing themselves and the public's respect for their profession inestimable damage.

MARIN LOOKS AT POLITICS

Apparently It Doesn't Take Long To 'Formulate' A Trip By President

By CHAPIN A. DAY

'CHIP' DAY

Marinites invited President Kennedy to come to the county to dedicate the Civic Center and were told 10 days ago not to expect him because "no plans have been formulated for another trip to California." Apparently it doesn't take long to formulate plans. Now it's been announced the President comes to California Aug. 18 (tentatively) to dedicate San Luis Reservoir, the jointly operated state-federal water pool which is the real heart of the California water plan.

Of course that early a visit wouldn't have been appropriate for the Civic Center dedication; it's not that near completion.

But what is slightly bugging the dedication committee, is that talk continues about "when the President comes out in the fall to campaign for Governor Brown." Stories from political insiders say the reservoir appearance will be strictly "non-political."

How this can be, however, is beyond us for how can one politician talk about a joint project with another politician, both in the same party, and not talk politics. It would be the neatest trick of the election year.

However, these same insiders are saying Kennedy WILL be back for a political swing through the state the end of October or the very first of November. Maybe it's this trip the President is still "formulating."

MORE APPOINTMENTS are being made to the Republican State Central Committee for its meeting and convention in Sacramento weekend after next.

Don Clausen, GOP congressional candidate, has named Elmer Worlund of San Anselmo, former Marin County central committee chairman, as one of his appointees. His other ones are in other counties of the First Congressional District.

Assemblyman William T. Bagley of San Rafael named Mrs. Lee Sherry of San Anselmo, who will run for Northern California women's vice president, and William M. Spencer Jr. of Mill Valley, who is devoting full time to Richard Nixon's gubernatorial campaign. Bagley's other appointments are two Sebastopol women and a Santa Rosa councilman, Charles Lemanger.

SPEAKING OF assemblymen, here is a portion of a letter which was received by an assemblyman at the Capitol in Sacramento about 80 years ago from a man in Tar Flat. It was handed me as a yellowing clipping from the Sacramento Bee.

"i write to tell you that you oughter vote down that bill rising schule teechers pay too what it used to wass for they git too much now even as they did altogether so then. weve got to many schules in the coontry entirely and peepul dont want to much book learnin anyhow espeshally if they are goin to work fur ther livin. Look at me i was born and razed in old Misoorer and never learned nothin but read and rite but i can do them good and the rest no counts. I coomed across the planes in 49 drivin an ox carte and now i owns lots of reel estate som in San Francisco which bothers me in this bill as i dont want to pay much taxes for schules and teechears which are not much count no how. i no you ar a repuklikin and i am a democrate but i hear that you will maybe vote fur our man if grant is nommynated and i will vote fur you fur anythin you want afterwards. with mi bes respec and hoping you will vote against hi schule teechers pay and cum inter the demerkratic party."

Connolly Hits Grand Slam

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

John J. Connolly hit a grand slam home run in his timely observance and lead question, "Are push button managers about to turn players into robots?" The answer seems to be—they already have.

If the manager, through the coach, signals a wig instead of a wag to the high priced piece of merchandise at the plate, he can make a hero or a bum out of him without the guy even trying.

Are these players men who possess almost every baseball gift, except the gift of the power to use them?

We Must Stand Firm In Peru

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

I sent the following letter to the President, to Dean Rusk and to Senators Engle and Kuchel:

Honorable Sirs:

The stand for principle and fair elections for Peru which was taken by the United States several days ago is to be applauded. Please do not be dissuaded from this firm stand, i.e., the withdrawal of U. S. funds until the Peruvians learn that they must follow the will of their people.

This step by the U. S. will have great influence in South and Central America and be a warning to the military that they must consider the welfare of the people and forget their fears, fears of the past.

In the case of Peru, we lived there one year, from March of '61 until February of '62. We met many wealthy and poor, some military; my husband at the time was construction superintendent for the Conchan Refinery.

We noticed the fears of the wealthy toward Haya de la Torre, because of past bloodshed; we saw how many of the rich Peruvians have their money in Swiss and U. S. banks and are unwilling to pay their fair share of taxes or support real and necessary land reforms; we noted the tendency of Peruvians to do things precipitively and emotionally; we noticed the hatred of true Communists toward Haya de la Torre; we saw how Belaunde and Odria both courted the Communists.

We traveled in Peru and we learned enough Spanish to be able to discuss Peru's politics with taxi drivers in Cuzco and our servant in Lima; we worked to some extent with charities and churches which are trying to ease the physical and emotional suffering of the Peruvians in the slums of Lima; we learned to love Peru and to hope that she could avoid bloodshed and would progress toward democracy in an orderly way and not be led into civil war and revolution.

We were told how the Communists broadcast in Quechua, especially to the Indians (half of whom do not speak Spanish). We met men who are ready to revolt with force unless some measure of the national money will bring schools, teachers, hospitals, medicine, etc., to the Peruvian highlands and unless the wealthy are forced to recognize the rights of ALL Peruvians.

We are proud that we, the U. S. people, are now firm enough in our knowledge of the destiny of the United States as a spokesman for the rights of man that the State Dept., under the leadership of the President and Secy. Rusk, shows the world and those of the wealthy and military group in Peru that they who would enjoy the freedoms of democracy must accept the results of free elections or else be sanctioned by the United States.

We are glad that our country is no longer leaning over backward to be polite and that we can now firmly show those who have thought we could be robbed and complimented that we can be as clever as serpents, as gentle as doves, and as determined as most of our forefathers that right and principle be served; that we are no longer going to be partied and dined into lining the pockets of the segments of the rich in Peru who have not yet learned what real democratic principles are.

Put Billboards On Civic Center

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

I like that bright blue roof on the new civic center building, but a field of bright red with green polka-dots would be even more esthetically appealing.

An array of billboards on the center's dome would be most appropriate under the circumstances.

BENNETT CERF

Ted Williams, probably the greatest hitter in big-league baseball in the past 20 years, didn't quite make the grade the first season he reported to the Boston Red Sox, and was optioned to Minneapolis for further seasoning. The three regular Red Sox outfielders were relieved to see him go, and made various and sundry insulting remarks as he packed his gear.

Ted Williams' reply was, "I'll be back, you no-good baboons, and I'll soon be earning more money than the three of you put together." It didn't take him long to make his prediction come true, either!

Milton Berle once broke in a new routine in Sioux City. Late that night he wired his agent, "I won't say I died out here, but when I picked up my suitcase to check out, it had eight handles on it." . . . And Berle defines a truly cultured lady as one who always takes out the spoon before she throws a cup at her husband.

A Lower Grade Teacher Should Be As Proficient As In Higher Grade

Amidst the ferment in Marin schools where principals and superintendents check in and out like tourists, a Kentfield educator has his own beef.

He contends that not enough attention is placed on teachers for kindergarten and first and second grades. He complains:

"A beginning teacher at $4,500 a year is put in charge of first grade and highly skilled teachers making $10,000 are put in charge of remedial classes—to teach kids the reading ability they didn't learn in the first place."

HE ARGUES THAT too much emphasis is placed on teaching of higher grades up through college graduate level; that the system tends to spur teachers to qualify as soon as possible to teach the higher grades "where the money is."

He argues that the lower grades, where the pupils are more plastic, are basic; and that at least the schools should be as meticulous in picking first grade teachers as those for the higher grades "for it's in the lower grades that the basic skills are learned."

He continues: "Education should be like medicine and law. A doctor treating babies isn't necessarily a beginner. A pediatrician rates as highly as a doctor specializing in geriatrics."

SPEAKING OF law, some Marin police disagree with the County Probation Department contention that the work furlough program is a great thing.

The probation officers point out that by letting the prisoners spend most of their time at work outside the jail, considerable money is turned over to the county and to the families of the prisoners.

Many officers think the whole thing is "too soft," period.

One Larkspur officer suggests the work furlough program might be more effective if before being released to work outside, the prisoner be kept for at least half his sentence completely behind bars seven days a week.

A Superior Court judge has quipped that with time off for good behavior (not tearing the jail up), etc., when a prisoner finally is sentenced the county might owe him time if he's been locked up from the time of arrest to conviction.

CRIME AND punishment in Marin is a hysterical subject to discuss. Many cops think the district attorney and judges too lenient. And they are hostile to certain defense attorneys for maneuvers they use to free clients.

High on the "We Don't Like" lists of certain police is attorney William O. Weissich. They contend he has an "unfair advantage" in fighting prosecutions because of the experience he gained as Marin district attorney—that he knows better than the average attorney the loopholes in the law.

One sore point with these police is Weissich's victories over blood alcohol test evidence in drunken driving cases; the test was adopted by Marin when he was DA. The disapprobation does not ruffle the urbane Weissich.

IN ALL THEIR wrangling among themselves, the police, deputy district attorneys, judges, private attorneys et al generally agree in wondering what goes on in San Quentin Prison, where so many have been knifed to death and so many have escaped.

—Some contend it is too tantalizing to inmates to stick them in a lockup on such a beautiful bay; that it should be moved to a desert.

Kennedy Has Hard Job Making Partisan Issue Of Medicare Failure

WASHINGTON—It is entirely reasonable and proper that President Kennedy should make his defeated medicare bill an important issue in this year's Congressional election.

He needs an issue and if medical care can help him get another Democratic Congress elected this fall, there is no reason why he shouldn't use it to the full.

The matter which needs to be examined is whether Kennedy can make it an effective partisan campaign issue in light of the voting record of his own party. I do not suggest that he will fail; he is a mighty powerful campaigner. But he faces formidable hurdles—like these:

WHEN THE Democratic party, with a 2-to-1 majority in the Senate and a 258-174 margin in the House, is unable to pass the administration's urban affairs bill, its farm bill, its medicare bill, how can it be very persuasive to argue that the election of a few more Democrats will give the White House what it wants?

The President recognizes that he is on weak ground here. He revealed this when he distorted the facts in his statement minimizing the Democratic votes against his bill and trying to pin nearly the whole responsibility for his defeat on the Republicans. Kennedy remarked that a mere "handful of Democrats" voted against medical care.

Since when has nearly one-third of the huge Democratic majority in the Senate been a "handful"? The fact is the Democrats contributed only 10 fewer votes to the defeat of medicare than the Republicans.

SEN. ROBERT S. KERR (Okla.), one of the two or three most powerful Democratic members of the Senate, informed the President months ago that he would be compelled to "battle the medicare bill to death." He did. He introduced the motion to kill it. He led the battle. He succeeded.

Ten of the Democratic chairmen of the 16 Senate standing committees voted against the President. In other words, more than a two-thirds majority of the most influential Democratic senators opposed the medicare bill. There is even more Democratic opposition to the bill in the House than in the Senate.

Finally, medical care for the aging received five more votes this time than it did in 1960. But Kennedy refrained from citing the fact that four of these came from Republicans and only one from the Democratic side.

These political facts will certainly make it difficult for the President to convince the voters that on the record the Democratic party deserves to be rewarded at the polls this fall.

But Kennedy has assets at his command and it is my conviction that he can use this issue to positive advantage if the Republicans fail to align themselves decisively behind a constructive, workable, worthy alternative to the President's method.

MEDICAL CARE for the aged by one method or another has substantial public support. Both national platforms in 1960 and both Presidential candidates favored Federal aid for medicare. They differed principally over how it should be financed.

The issue in the fall elections will not be over the objective of medical care for the aging but over which party is more likely to get it enacted.

Dixie Unit Approves Plans For New School

Preliminary architectural plans for a new seventh-eighth grade school to be built in Marinwood near Miller Creek at Las Gallinas Avenue were approved last night by trustees of the Dixie School District.

The plans include a five classroom wing, school administration quarters, a homemaking room, science room and arts and crafts room to be constructed at an estimated cost of $225,000.

Supt. Dennie Willis said construction on the wing, which will be the first section of a 24 classroom school, is expected to begin before January. "The five classrooms," Willis said, "are all connected by sliding partitions so the wing can be opened into one large room or two or more classes can be joined for group activities."

Architectural firm is Reid, Rockwell, Banwell and Tarics of San Francisco. Approval of construction drawings is expected to be considered within two months.

Horatio Birdbath Guest On KTIM

Dr. Horatio Q. Birdbath will be a guest tomorrow at 11 a.m. on the Woman's World over Radio KTIM with Mary Deane Kingery.

Dr. Birdbath, who prefers this name to his original one, is well-known to Spike Jones fans for his various imitations on comedy records. He also does bird sounds for Martin Denny records, has worked with Amos and Andy and Jack Benny.

One of his most famous records, says Mrs. Kingery, is "What Do the Animals Do When They Say I Love You?"

Currently, 33 of the 50 states in the Union grant driver's licenses at the age of 16. Only four have the upper age of 18.

Dixie Trustees 'Reluctantly' Give Up Potential School Site

Trustees of the Dixie School District last night "reluctantly" decided to give up the district's claim on a potential school site at Lucas Valley Road and Las Gallinas Avenue in Marinwood.

A master plan for the area drawn by the county planning commission approximately seven years ago reserved land at the street intersection for an elementary school to serve anticipated growth in the area, including some 300 children.

"We don't have the money to buy the land now," said Supt. Dennie Willis. "In January the planning commission gave us six months to buy the site or release it. We are reluctantly asking them to rezone the land." Willis said developer Gerald Hoytt of Richmond has requested the land be rezoned so he can sell it.

A state law requires school distircts to sell school sites if they are not developed within five years, Willis said.

Trustees also bought a new school bus for the district for $7,195.71. Successful bidder was Bianco Motors of San Rafael and Gillig Bros. manufacturing company.

High bids were for $7,592 from Rossi Garage Inc. of San Rafael and for $8,071.23 from Shamrock Motors in Mill Valley.

In other action, the board:

1. Agreed to pay the Terra Linda Recreation District $500 to supervise school playgrounds on Saturdays during the school year.

2. Granted Mrs. Lois Malone, Don Timoteo School teacher, maternity leave.

3. Hired three new teachers: Phoebe Kostelecky, who has been teaching in Germany, at $6,150 salary to teach first grade at Don Timoteo School; Mrs. Renada Brink of Santa Clara County to teach second grade and third grades at Jefferson School at $5,400; George E. Gartske, Kentfield School District teacher, to teach seventh and eighth grade science and mathematics at Vallecito School, $5,650.

4. Employed Mrs. Irene Muhly as secretary for Willis at $465 per month.

DRAKE SCIENTISTS—Edward E. F. Grissell and research partner Jayne L. DuMont, Sir Francis Drake High School students, observe as Prof. Harold F. Madsen examines cage in which codling moth specimens are being reared for laboratory experiments. Five Drake students are participating in summer research programs of University of California.

FIVE IN U.C. PROGRAM

Drake Students With Flair For Science Doing Research

Students at Sir Francis Drake High School have a flair for science.

Five of them — more than from any other high school — were chosen from applicants throughout the state to attend a University of California summer research participation program now being conducted by top U.C. scientists at Berkeley and other Bay Area centers.

The five are working in widely different fields. Edward E. F. Grissell of 120 Broadmoor Avenue, San Anselmo, is doing research in entomology at Berkeley. Stephen R. Kinkade of 30 Van Tassell Court, Sleepy Hollow, is studying at the university's San Francisco Medical Center. Bertil S. Beander of 350 Oak Avenue; Gordon O. Nelson of 50 Forbes Avenue, and R. Kirk Smith of 35 Tappen Road all San Anselmo, are assisting in physiological research at Sir Francis Drake High School in San Anselmo.

The summer research program, administered by university extension, is made possible by a grant from the National Science Foundation.

The program is designed to encourage the scientific interests of exceptionally able students and to give them clearer perspectives into the meaning and rewards of careers in science by permitting them to join the research teams of distinguished scholars who are working in the students' fields of interest.

For Grissell, this field is entomology. His summer project is a study of the biology and control of insect pests affecting some of California's important fruit crops. Supervising Grissell's work is Harold F. Madsen, associate professor of entomology at Berkeley.

"One of the insects we're doing research on," Grissell explains, "is 'pear psylla.'" This is a tiny aphid-like insect which may be the cause of "pear decline," a disease decimating orchards in several areas of the state.

Other pests being investigated are the codling moth and the navel orange worm. Grissell is doing both field and laboratory work in the course of the research.

"And he's not merely a 'lab hand,'" Dr. Madsen adds. Some of the techniques Grissell is becoming familiar with are the rearing of generations of insects under laboratory conditions, the search for natural enemies to eradicate certain pests, and the use of "black light" traps to learn the flight patterns by which pest populations spread.

A June graduate of Sir Francis Drake, Grissell plans to enter College of Marin this fall.

Beander, Nelson and Smith are performing research in electrophysical properties of nerve tissue under the guidance of Norman N. Goldstein. Their duties involve the dissection of nerve tissues as well as fine measurements which require delicate and complex electronic equipment. Kinkade's research supervisor in San Francisco is Dr. Leon Goldman, professor of surgery on the staff of the medical center.

The summer research program will end for all five students Aug. 24.

Heroin Figure Gets 20 Years

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Federal Court Judge William T. Sweigert has sentenced Lawrence P. (Red) Duvernay, to 20 years in prison for trafficking in heroin.

Duvernay, described by police as the "crime czar of the Fillmore District," wept in court when the judge pronounced sentence.

The 48-year-old Alcatraz inmate, told Judge Sweigert that the police "had dogged me and kicked me ever since I got out of Alcatraz in 1948."

San Rafael Boy Pinned By Car

A 14-year-old San Rafael boy was pinned between a car and a metal work bench Tuesday but escaped serious injury.

Robert Muriel Gass of 14 Sentinel Court, Apt.1, was X-rayed at San Rafael General Hospital and released in good condition.

He had gone to Dexter Car Co. at 1731 Fourth Street to deliver a message to his older brother, Frank Edward Gass, who works as mechanic in the repair shop. A car in gear accidently lurched forward, pinning Robert at the waist.

Savings, Loan Companies Pick Up Higher Per Cent Of Realty Loans

Savings and loan companies pick up a higher percentage of real estate loans in Marin County than elsewhere in the Bay Area, according to figures from the Title Insurance and Trust Co. The figure is consistently around 40 per cent and about half of that through the local companies.

Banks are next in Marin—29 per cent; private indviduals more than 16 per cent; mortgage company and insurance company loans splitting the balance almost evenly. June real estate loans in Marin were a trifle under 18 million dollars.

In Sonoma County—with almost the same total—private individuals did 55 per cent of the financing; savings and loan companies only 13 per cent. Banks did about the same percentage as in Marin.

In Alameda, Contra Costa, San Francisco, San Mateo and Santa Clara counties, savings and loan companies average from 28 to 35 per cent of the financing. Bank financing is heaviest in San Francisco—48 per cent; in the other counties from 34 to 40 per cent.

Giant Mound Aces All Set For Crucial L.A. Series

HOUSTON (AP) — The San Francisco Giants will be aiming at taking over undisputed first place in a weekend showdown series with Los Angeles—but they have to win all three games.

The persistent Giants, dogging the leaders' heels like a clever distance runner, stayed one game off the pace last night by whipping Houston for the third straight time, 3-2.

The pace-setting clubs both rest today before opening in Los Angeles tomorrow night.

A 2-1 Giants edge in the series would knot the race after Sunday. A 2-1 Dodgers win would leave the Giants two games back while a Los Angeles sweep would open a commanding four-game margin.

A San Francisco sweep would put the Giants two games ahead for the first time since June 5.

With the day of rest, manager Alvin Dark will have his top pitching threesome of Juan Marichal, Jack Sanford and Billy O'Dell ready to go against Johnny Podres, Stan Williams and Don Drysdale.

Marichal and Sanford are each 13-6, while O'Dell advanced his record to 12-8 last night with help from Don Larson and Stu Miller.

O'Dell yielded a run in the first inning on a double and single, then blanked the Colts until the seventh. After loading the bases on a two-out single and two walks, the little left-hander departed for Larson, who retired the side on two pitches.

But Don's right arm stiffened, so Miller threw the final two innings. Bob Aspromonte greeted Miller with a one-run homer, but no other Colt threat materialized.

Jim Davenport rapped his 12th home run of the year in the first inning with no one aboard. Singles by Felipe Alou, O'Dell and Chuck Hiller produced a run in the second.

In the sixth, Alou tripled and scored on Tom Haller's single.

Willie Mays, with six home runs in the six games prior to last night's had to be content with two singles in four trips. Starter Jim Golden, knocked out in a scoreless third inning, lost his ninth against five victories.

The Giants have now won nine of 11 and four straight. The series sweep shoved them ahead of Houston 7-5 so far in 1962.

Death Climbs In The Ring

PHOENIX, Ariz. (UPI)—Death climbed into the boxing ring again last night.

Sonny Nunez, 19-year-old Arizonian, entered the ring at Phoenix Madison Square Garden for his first professional fight. Several hours later he was dead.

Roderigo Contrerras battered Nunez with a shattering right cross to the head in the final round of their scheduled four-round preliminary bout and Nunez dropped to the floor. Instinctively, Nunez struggled to get up—but could not.

Ring physician Dr. Charles Kalil desperately worked on Nunez as the stricken fighter lay stretched on the canvas. After attempting for 26 minutes to revive him, officials rushed Nunez to surgery at Memorial Hospital.

The young boxer was pronounced dead a half-hour later.

It was the seventh ring death this year, including amateur and professional bouts.

Only four months ago, March 24, welterweight champion Benny "Kid" Paret was battered into unconsciousness by Emile Griffith before millions of national television spectators. Paret succumbed to the injuries April 2 and the sport of boxing came under fire from irate critics.

Indeed, it probably will come under fire again.

Ironically, Nunez, who lived in Glendale, Ariz., was not even matched to meet Contrerras. The latter was a substitute for Joe Rodriguez of Tucson, who was unable to make the fight.

The tragic Contrerras-Nunez bout was a prelim to the North American bantamweight championship in which Manny Elias scored a unanimous 15-round decision over Rudy Corona.

Hamilton, Sohner Softball Clubs Split Twin-Bill

Jay Leatherwood hurled a two-hit shutout in the second game of a softball doubleheader last night to give Sohner Tree Service a 4-0 victory over Hamilton Field and a split in the two contests.

Hamilton scored five times in the first and four in the third to coast to a 9-4 triumph in the opener.

Bob Dyer scattered ten hits in the first game to post the win for the Soldiers. Jack Farley hit a three-run homer for Hamilton in the third while John Brookman hit a solo four-master in the first stanza to give the Treemen a brief advantage.

Sohner tallied twice in both the third and fourth innings to notch the second game win.

Ed Schulze, celebrating the birth of a daughter an hour before game-time, had a two-run single in the third while Brookman's clutch single was the key blow in the fourth inning rally.

The Sausalito Foundation announced today it is emphasizing the collection of funds for a new public library in connection with its new drive for membership.

Those joining the foundation within the next 60 days may specify that membership initiation, or larger donation, be deposited in the library fund, chairman Ralph P. Lyon said. The entire proceeds from the Foundation Night to be held this fall will also go toward a new library.

Majors May Increase Player Limit Due To Rugged 162-Game Schedule

CONNOLLY

Whispering in semi-official circles indicates a drive is in the offing this winter to boost the 25-player limit now prevailing in the major leagues. The rumblings, if it can be called such, stems from the 162-game schedule involving the brutal coast-to-coast plane flights.

Those who favor an increase blame it on (1) constant use of the two platoon system; (2) a growing need for better bench help and (3) a general unrest among managers to carry more pitchers.

"If we use our regular pitchers in batting practice it limits our use of them that particular afternoon or evening," one of my manager pals states.

This quite evident with the S.F. Giants. Often Hank Sauer and other coaches fill in pitching batting practice. And that doesn't sharpen the eyes of the batters, nor is it a good practice.

IN A DISCUSSION recently with experienced scouts, many among them who have been managers, it was argued that to properly staff a big league club that has to play 162 games in a crowded schedule involving long jumps, night and day, the player limit should be boosted by three to five more men. In that way, they explain, a club in the throes of a hot flag race should be able to count on 15 pitchers, 3 catchers, 6 outfielders and 6 infielders. I'll admit it sounds sorta bulky but there is room for arbitration, as the union boys say.

THOSE OWNERS who object to increasing the player limit maintain 15 pitchers are altogether too many. It has been found that down through the years winning clubs seldom have more than five starting pitchers and three relievers.

They might add two extra pitchers for batting practice and maybe another reliever.

MOST EVERYONE connected with baseball considers reserve strength as the key to success. Were the player limit increased it would give all clubs a big leeway in the event of injuries which so often derail pennant contending clubs.

At the present time the Giants carry a full quota of 25 and have expertly used the reserves like McCovey, Mota and Bowman as infielders and as reserve outfielders. Luckily Kuenn, Mota, Nieman, Matty Alou and McCovey alternate in the outfield. So the Giants get double duty, which is unusual but good for the boss.

For a club that has been in the pennant fight from the outset, I'd say the Giants have made good use of their reserve players.

"THE PLAYER shortage today with 10 clubs in each league is so great that only the rich clubowners can afford to vote for a player increase," explains Garry Schumacher, S.F. public relations man.

"If there is a drive on to increase the player limit, we haven't heard of it," he added.

Schumacher, a veteran baseball writer and one of the game's keenest observers, answers the question of whether there should be an increase or not, with a question of his own, to-wit: "What would Casey Stengel do with any more players?"

Raider End Breaks Leg

SANTA CRUZ (AP) — A broken leg bone may keep Oakland Raider end Bob Coolbaught out of action for six weeks.

The veteran was hurt on a pass pattern Wednesday and first diagnosis was that the fibula bone in his leg was broken above the ankle.

His loss left the Raiders without a right end in camp. "And he was coming along real well, too," grimaced coach Marty Feldman.

Coolbaught was taken to Santa Cruz hospital.

Feldman's day was brightened a bit by the return of defensive tackle Bob Voight from the injury list. But the Raiders practice was so listless that Feldman halted it soon after Coolbaught's mishap.

Li'l League Semis Friday

It will be an all-Mill Valley battle at Strawberry tomorrow night while Novato duels San Rafael at Hamilton Air Force Base in the semi-finals of the District 3 Little League All-Star Baseball Tournament.

Both semi-finals games tomorrow start at 6 p.m. with the winners playing for the district title at Novato Saturday, 3 p.m., and the losers meeting at 1 p.m. for third place, also at Novato.

Both Mill Valley clubs won their quarter-finals games last night, the National League downing host Strawberry 7-3 and the American edging Golden Gate of the Presidio 3-2 at Twin Cities. Novato advanced by overcoming an 0-5 first inning deficit and beating Marinwood 13-7 at Novato and the San Rafael American League clipped Fairfax-Sleepy Hollow 7-2.

Just prior to the latter game at San Quentin, the Fairfax team eliminated Gallinas Valley 8-7 in the completion of their seven-inning game called by darkness the previous evening.

Mill Valley National League's righthanded mound ace Tommy Fair pitched a two-hitter in beating Strawberry. Fair gave up both hits during a shaky first inning when Strawberry scored all its runs, but was untouchable the rest of the way. He retired the last 14 batters to face him.

M.V. centerfielder Glen Zoslaw drove in four runs with two hits and Paul Chirco, who batted a record .621 during the regular season, drove in a pair of runs.

Mill Valley American League's victory was much tougher, but it finally eliminated Golden Gate with the winning run in the sixth inning. Greg Renfort slammed a double down the left field line and went right on around to score on a throwing error on the play. Five hundred fans saw this thriller at the Twin Cities park, Larkspur-Corte Madera.

Winning pitcher Bobby DePoli, a southpaw, and loser Paul Bolton each gave up only three hits. DePoli, who retired Golden Gate in the bottom of the sixth on only four pitches (infield grounders), struck out six and walked six. Bolton fanned nine and walked only two.

Novato's All-Stars were knocked back on their heels when Marinwood blasted no-hit ace Jimmy Sparks for five runs in the first inning, featuring a three-run homer by Pat Markovich and a solo four-bagger by Jim Steele.

Sparks, who pitched three no-hit, no-run games during the season, was replaced by Jim Morrow who went the rest of the way for the victory.

Novato rallied behind the booming bats of Pete Weekley with a three-run homer, Mike Ferretti with a double and two singles, Billy Tucker with a pair of doubles and Gary Moore and Charles Day, each with a two-bagger.

Larry Nelson pitched a four-hitter, striking out 10 and walking only one in San Rafael's 7-2 win over Fairfax-Sleepy Hollow.

His mates backed him with a 10-hit attack, including a homer and single and three RBI's by Bill Meredith, Pete King with three singles and Gary Hanson with a double and single.

Hitters for the losers were Bob Bianchini with a double and single, and Larry Bresnan and Mike Keelen each with a double.

Drysdale, Purkey Threaten To Break Victory Records

U. P. INTERNATIONAL

Maybe it is a hitter's game but you can't prove it by Don Drysdale of the Los Angeles Dodgers and Bob Purkey of the Cincinnati Reds, who are threatening modern club pitching records of their respective teams.

Drysdale, the free-wheeling right-hander who is doing "extra duty" since the Dodgers lost the services of the ailing Sandy Koufax, scored his 18th victory of the season last night in Los Angeles' 5-2 triumph over the St. Louis Cardinals.

Purkey, a World Series hero in defeat last autumn, gained his 16th triumph as the Reds stretched their longest winning streak of the season to eight games with a 13-6 victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates.

DODGERS RECORD

With at least 15 more starting assignments left to each this season, Drysdale is a threat to equal or surpass the modern Dodger mark of 29 victories in a season set by Joe McGinnity in 1900 while Purkey is in a strong position to top the Reds' club mark of 27, which is shared by Adolph Luque and Bucky Walters. Drysdale has lost only four games and Purkey has suffered only three losses.

Drysdale needed the late inning help of Ron Perranoski and Ed Roebuck plus a 14-hit attack that included a triple and homer by Maury Wills, three hits by Willie Davis and a triple by Frank Howard.

Drysdale yielded eight hits in seven innings, including a sixth-inning homer by Stan Musial which enabled the 41-year old Cardinal star to set a lifetime N. L. mark of 1,862 runs batted in.

Purkey allowed two homers by Smokey Burgess but was backed by a 21-hit attack that included four hits by Frank Robinson and three each by Eddie Kasko, Don Blasingame, Jerry Lynch and Leo Cardenas.

The Reds clinched it with a five-run eighth-inning rally.

The San Francisco Giants downed the Houston Colts, 3-2, the Milwaukee Braves whipped the New York Mets, 11-5, and the Chicago Cubs defeated the Philadelphia Phillies, 5-2, in the other N. L. action.

The Los Angeles Angels moved to within 2½ games of the American League when they beat the Baltimore Orioles, 5-2, and the New York Yankees lost to the Boston Red Sox, 4-2, before scoring a 6-4 victory. The Minnesota Twins nipped the Detroit Tigers, 7-6, the Washington Senators edged the Chicago White Sox, 4-3, and the Kansas City Athletics shaded the Cleveland Indians, 5-4.

Wills Watns Out Of All-Star Game; His Leg's Ailing

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Los Angeles Dodgers shortstop Maury Wills says he'd like to beg off playing in the All-Star game next Monday in Chicago against the Americans.

"I shouldn't even be in the Dodger line-up right now," said Wills. "My right leg pained me when I played the other All-Star game in Washington, and it has gotten worse. It's taped as high as it can be taped, so I can run, and I've been looking forward to two days' rest, which might help me get over these muscle spasms.

"My position probably will be misunderstood. It's an honor to play, and if Fred Hutchinson asks me I'll tell him how I feel."

Manager Walt Alston of the Dodgers says he believes Wills will play at Chicago. Maury stole the first game from the Americans with his baserunning.

ABL Still Alive In Pro Cage War

CHICAGO (AP) — Instead of nearing burial with brief rites, as generally expected, the infant American Basketball League today came out clawing at the long-established National Basketball Association.

ABL Commissioner Abe Saperstein, a quiet, but tough little basketball impressario for many years, not only rallied his sagging loop for a six-member try next season, but also hurled a law suit threat at the NBA with the Jerry Lucas-enriched Cleveland Pipers as big bone of contention.

After a two-day league session, Saperstein announced the ABL will try again next season with Denver as a new member, Hawaii and New York switching to Long Beach, Calif., and Philadelphia, and Kansas City, Pittsburgh and his own Chicago Majors holding over.

Lost from last season's ABL seven-club array are the Pipers, whose bid to join the rival NBA gets formal consideration Monday, and the San Francisco Saints, who quit in the wake of an NBA jump of its Philadelphia Warriors to San Francisco.

Saperstein, whose independent Harlem Globetrotters have harvested him money all over the world, sent bristling telegrams to NBA Commissioner Maurice Podoloff and Cleveland Piper owner George Steinbrenner. The NBA's board of governors meets Monday ostensibly to accept a $100,000 performance bond from Cleveland.

Both were warned that Cleveland's membership acceptance by the NBA will bring legal action from the ABL.

Saperstein, obviously eyeing the fabulous Lucas, who has yet to play his first pro game, stressed that Cleveland's personnel must go to the ABL for distribution if that club fails to rejoin the ABL.

In cranking up for a second season ABL try, the Hawaii Chiefs, owned by Art Kim, will move into a nearly-completed auditorium at Long Beach.

The New York Tapers, owned by Paul Cohen, shift to Philadelphia where a businessman group, including William A. Banks, owner of a radio station, will back the ABL's effort to snag pro patronage left by the departure to San Francisco of the Warriors.

The new Denver franchise will be operated by a group headed by Harry Fowler, manager of the city's auditorium.

CANDLESTICK SPLINTERS TO DISAPPEAR

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—By now everybody who's interested knows the wind blows—and fiercely—at Candlestick Park, home of the San Francisco baseball Giants.

Also, a lawyer has won a case because Giant management didn't heat up his box seat according to what the lawyer called "advance billing."

Now its splintering wooden seats.

But this time it's the Giants doing the complaining, because the city is responsible for park maintenance. Owner Horace Stoneham told Mayor George Christopher that splinters from the seats are penetrating the clothing of Giants' fans.

So today 12 youths, armed with sandpaper, will start an eight-day career as splinter removers at $1 an hour.

Mahaffey, Robinson, Mathew Williams New N.L. All-Stars

CINCINNATI (UPI) — Art Mahaffey, whose 13 victories with the seventh-place Philadelphia Phillies stamp him as one of the majors' brightest young pitchers, and three top sluggers were named today to the National League squad for the season's second All-Star game in Chicago, July 30.

Mahaffey was named to replace the ailing Sandy Koufax of the Los Angeles Dodgers while outfielders Frank Robinson of the Cincinnati Reds and Billy Williams of the Chicago Cubs and Milwaukee thirdbaseman Eddie Mathews were added to the squad which beat the American League at Washington, July 9. Both the N. L. and A. L. squads will have 28 players for the second meeting of the game's top stars.

Manager Fred Hutchinson also named managers Birdie Tebbetts of the Braves and Harry Craft of the Houston Colts to replace first-game coaches Casey Stengel of the New York Mets and Johnny Keane of the St. Louis Cardinals.

Mahaffey, a 6-2, 200-pound fastballer from Cincinnati, has compiled a 13-9 record for the Phillies. The 24-year old right-hander broke in as a rookie with a 7-3 record in 1960 and had an 11-9 mark with the last-place Phillies of 1961.

Koufax, the Dodgers' fireballing strikeout king, is sidelined with a circulatory ailment in his pitching hand.

This is the ninth time Mathews has been chosen, the fifth time for Robinson and the first time for Williams. The American League leads in the All-Star series, 16-15-1.

Fun, Sport At Clearlake Highlands; Pedro Point Salmon Action Again

STEVENS

Don Smith of Don's Bait Shop at Clearlake Highlands reported bass fishing spotty or slow the past few days, but did some mild raving over the fun, sport and amusement, the younger generation has been having with crappies and blue gills from the various piers and boat landings. I was also told that the catfishing is excellent early mornings and late evenings.

A surprising run of striped bass off the Montara Shore gladdened the hearts of nearly 150 surfcasters over the weekend. Only scattered reports from other beaches.

It seems that the Pedro Point salmon grounds have again become fertile. Doris Marshall of the Berkeley Harbor Bait shop on the Berkeley pier reported on three boats, the Whirlaway, Lancer and Yvette. Each took limits or near limits with several heavy salmon among the catch.

LATE EVENING trolling for stripers in the upper San Pablo Bay wasn't very productive over the weekend. Out of Crockett the party boats from Dowrelio's Harbor carried 60 passengers for a total catch of only 104 fish on Sunday. Monday the score was a bit better, but still not as good as it was prior to the last weekend.

Alcatraz trolling has held up very well, with limit or near limit catches the rule. Sam Matsamoto of the Pacific Bait Shop in Oakland went out on the Troller Sunday evening and garnered his limit to 20 pounds. On Monday night the Troller had 12 bass to 16 pounds.

SAM TOLD me a few of the lads have been working the new slag pile at Selby (casting worms from shore) with success. One oldtimer has taken his legal limits four times out since last week.

THE HOTTEST news probably is the rather amazing success some of the regulars are having back of the smokehouse at the Berkeley Pier. Big fish and fairly plentiful for the shaps using the sea worm for bait. "If you cut up the sea worms, you'll get fish all right, but they will be the smaller ones. The way to get the big fellows is to use the entire worm — run it clear up the leader," Sam explained. You can get sea worms from the Pacific Bait shop, and probably other bait shops as well.

I HAVE been asked quite often where live minnows may be purchased. Several of the dealers in the Delta Region have discontinued business, but I am told they may be had at the Pacific Bait Shop on San Pablo Avenue, Oakland.

Novato Archer Scores Again; Kills Limit With Two Shots

When it comes to archery markmanship in the hunting field, George Jensen of Novato must rate as the all-time Marin County champion.

Jensen, a veteran archer who almost always gets his limit, really outdid himself last Saturday on the opening day of the archery deer season.

Hunting in the hills near Novato with Dick Argento, Jensen took two shots and killed two bucks . . . his limit! Thus, Jensen's season was all over in just a few hours as he returned home by 9:30 a.m. on opening day. One of the bucks weighed more than 100 pounds field dressed; the other was somewhat smaller.

Argento, meanwhile, did proud for himself, too, as he bagged a nice three-pointer.

San Anselmo Names Senior All-Star Team

An All-Star squad of 15 players was announced today for the San Anselmo Senior League, composed of boys 15, 16 and 17 years old.

Senior League Vice President Phil Hiaring said the All Stars would represent their community in the annual San Anselmo Invitational All-Star tournament on the Hub City's Memorial Park diamond next week. Details are not complete.

Four of the All-Stars are repeaters from last year's picked squad — Laddie Richardson, pitcher for Currie Construction; Lon Gallagher and Bob Faulkner, fielders for Guasco Super Market, and Rorie Riley, first baseman for American Steel Fabricators.

Currie Construction, managed by Ernie Giono, placed five men on the All-Stars as did American Steel. Giono has been selected as official Senior League All-Star manager. He will be assisted by Cook Segale.

In addition to Richardson, the Currie picks are Dan Aballo, Clyde Curly, Fran Gearhart and Pat Murray.

Besides Riley, American Steel landed Dennis Hannigan, Larry Gerughty, Ken Schmidt and Charles Simontacchi.

Other than Gallagher and Faulkner, Guasco Super placed Phil Ferries. Iacopi Meat Company is represented by Gary

Pirates' Don Hoak Injures His Arm

CINCINNATI (AP) — Veteran third baseman Don Hoak of Pittsburgh was sidelined by an arm injury last night in the second inning of a game with Cincinnati.

A team spokesman said Hoak suffered a broken blood vessel in his right forearm on a hard-hit line single by Eddie Kasko.

Johnny Logan replaced Hoak at third. There was no immediate indication how long the injury would keep Hoak out of the line-up.

HOUSTON, Tex. (UPI)—Jacky Cupit, former University of Houston golfer who won the 1961 Canadian Open Championship, was named professional golf's Rookie-of-the-Year for the past season.

BOY CATCHES 3-LB. RAINBOW AT NICASIO

A 13-year-old San Rafael boy proved the envy of all fishermen Tuesday when he caught a three-pound Rainbow trout at Nicasio Dam—believed to be the largest fish ever taken out of the new reservoir.

John Bruce of 10 Meriam Drive was the proud angler and his Rainbow measured 19 inches in length. It took him 20 minutes to subdue the whopper. He used salmon eggs for bait.

Young John was fishing with his father, Lloyd, and uncle, Vas Funari, also of San Rafael.

Nick Kobseff of Rancho Nicasio, who weighed and measured the fish, emphasized it was a Rainbow and not a steelhead. "Biggest fish taken at Nicasio," Kobseff stated.

Money Runner

SYDNEY, Australia (UPI) — Carbine, the great Australian race horse considered the equal of America's Man of War, ran in 43 races. He won 33, was second six times and third three times. His winnings were $147,380.

MARIS BEFORE MANTLE

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (AP) — The official Yankee guidebook and scorecard sold at Fort Lauderdale Stadium contains pictures of many Yankees. Leading the parade of players inside the program is Roger Marin (61 homers). He appears on page 6 and precedes Mickey Mantle. These two sluggers are followed in order by Yogi Berra, Elston Howard and John Blanchard. Whitey Ford's picture leads the pitchers. He is followed by Luis Arroyo, who followed him quite a bit as a relief pitcher last year.

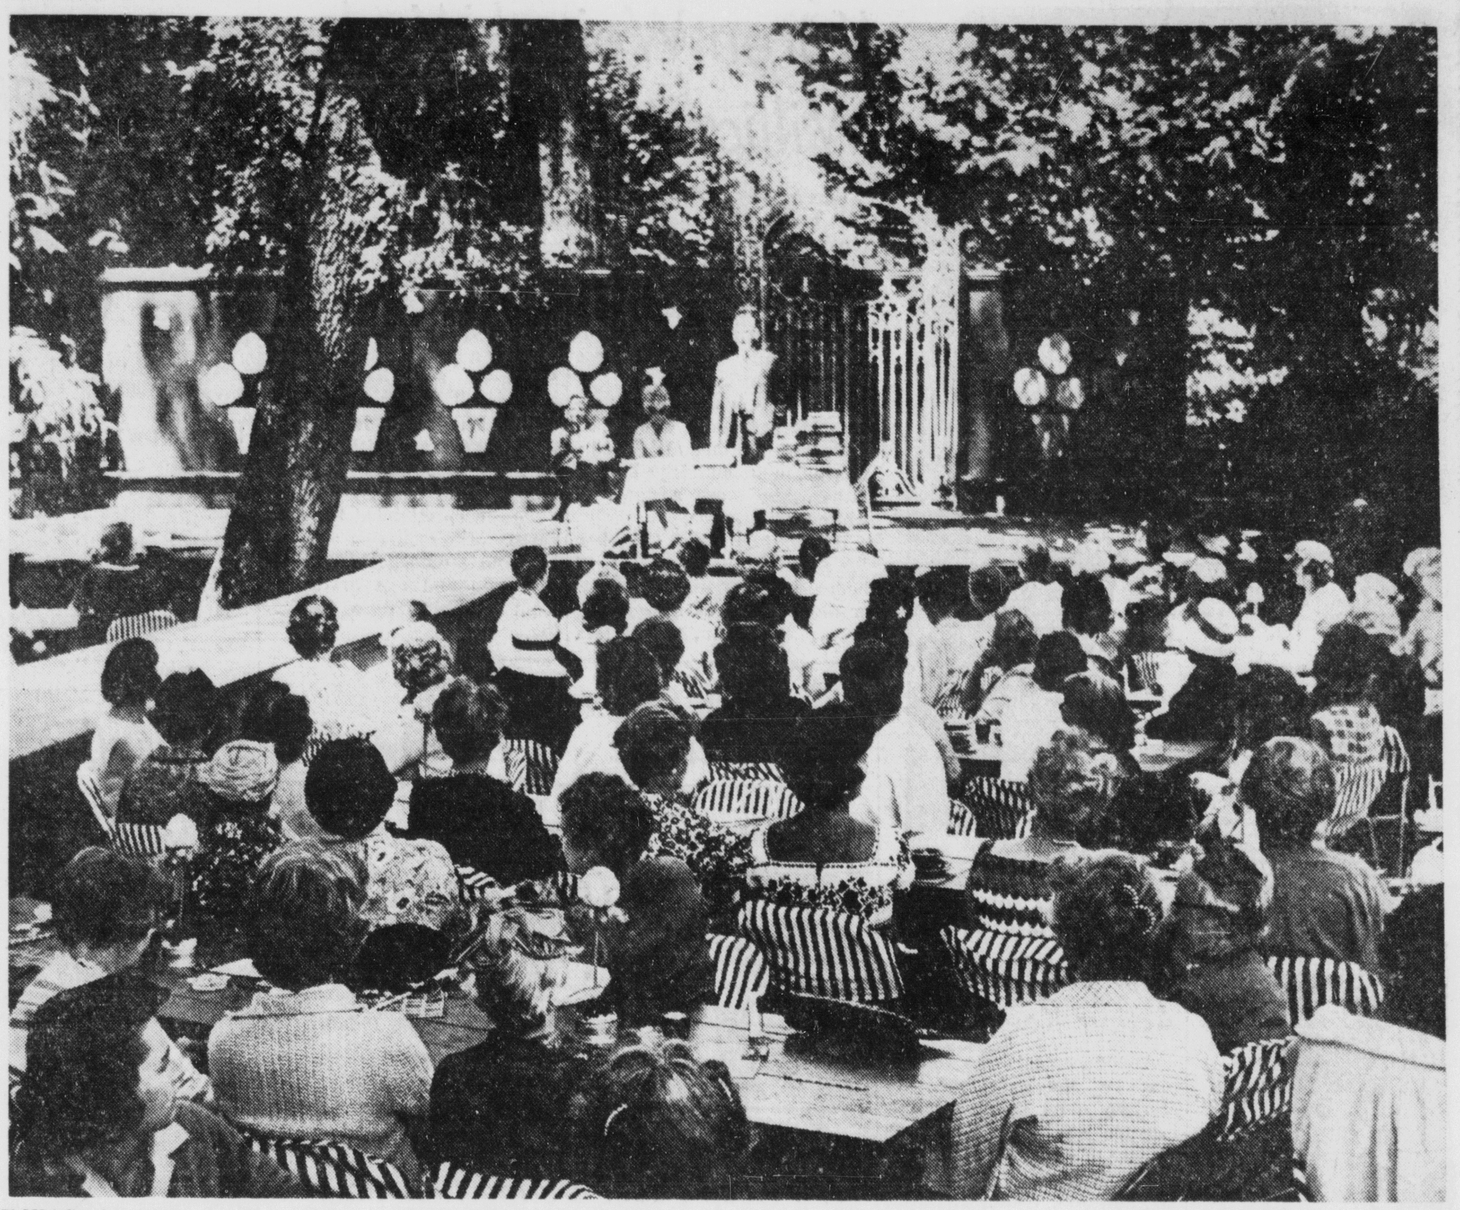
A SOCIABLE gathering stood beside the punch table yesterday noon, to chat before the second summer luncheon at the Marin Art and Garden Center in Ross, including some of the recent graduate set and guests at the Marin Branch, AAUW. This group includes Mrs. John Blom, Miss Kathy Kirk and Mrs. Wayne Gray.



IT WAS a bookish crowd yesterday, with the Reading Arts Section of the AAUW in charge. Here Lewis Lengfeld of Books Inc. of San Francisco gives the low-down on the current fiction and non-fiction works. Seated near him are Mr. and Mrs. John Boucher of San Mateo, who published the large sized coloring books of illustrations from the children's classics, and who explained the origins of their unusual publishing venture. The second Northgate Group series luncheon was the first sponsored by the Marin AAUW. (Independent-Journal photos by Jim Kean)

Marin Women

MEMBERS WERE kept busy checking reservations and assigning tables as guests entered the luncheon area. Here, from left, Mesdames Phillip Page, Rudy Lang, Henry Skinner and William Kapranos, are welcomed by Mrs. Harry Koons, Philip A. Nathan and John Cary Gilman.

BEFORE THE festivities got underway yesterday a formal ceremony served to dedicate a section of the Northgate area to be known as "The Stratford Garden" in honor of Mrs. Frank C. Stratford of Ross, first president of Northgate Group. Viewing the garden, from left, are Mrs. Norman B. Livermore, Mrs. Stratford, Mrs. LeRoy Page, present Northgate president, and Mrs. John Dowling, landscape chairman for the Group, who worked with Herman Hein to design the garden.

A TABLE FOR 10 was hostessed by Mrs. William R. Eastman, right, the Marin Branch president, American Assn. of University Women. Among her guests were Mesdames Raymond Waterlow, left, Lewis Summers, and Robert Larsen. Serving them is AAUW member Mrs. Herbert Brann.

Karen Ann Weigel became the bride of William Wade Hawkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ward W. Hawkins of San Anselmo, at an afternoon ceremony in the chapel of the First Presbyterian Church in Burlingame July 14. Dr. George D. Peters officiated.

The bride, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Weigel of Edmonds, Wash., was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of white silk organza.

Her attendants, Carolyn Weigel of Whittier as maid of honor, and Patricia Ann Driver of San Jose as flower girl, wore pink organza over taffeta dresses. Both are cousins of the bride.

Ronald Goodman of Livermore served the bridegroom as best man, and escorting guests to seats were Joseph Bardeau and Leroy Beasley.

After a wedding trip to the Northwest and Canada, the couple will live in Sunnyvale, as the bridegroom is an electronics engineer with Hewlitt Packard Electronics Corp. in Palo Alto.

The bride attended the University of Washington and her husband attended the College of Marin and was graduated from the University of California.

Some Suggestions May Be Useful To Keep Peace During Mealtime

"My children squabble at mealtime," a mother writes. "They're driving me crazy. I have two girls and two boys. The eldest is nine. Can you tell me how to reduce their dinnertime quarrels?"

I'd be glad to try. Here are some mealtime rules which have helped many other mothers:

1. You and your husband should set good examples in your table manners, your speech, your attitudes.

2. You must treat your children fairly. Don't ever play favorites.

3. Serve small helpings of food. Give seconds or thirds when needed.

4. When you introduce a new dish, put only a spoonful on the children's plates. A taste or two will be enough.

5. Don't force your children to eat large quantities of any food they dislike, but insist on at least one bite of everything.

6. At the table discuss things which interest the children. Hold their attention. Listen when they speak.

7. Reconcile yourself to accidents, like tipped over glasses. Try not to scold when they happen.

8. Say grace before eating. In addition to the spiritual benefit, it will help the children to quiet down. Hold hands while grace is being said.

9. Let the children help you select the food for a meal, prepare it, and serve it now and then.

10. Always act as though you expect the best from the children at the table, not the worst.

11. When a serious quarrel starts, hush the combatants and change the subject. If one of them won't cooperate send him to his room.

READERS' FORUM

(Q) "I have two small sons who quarrel a lot. I'm forever interfering. Should I let them fight it out?"

Mrs. J. R.

(A) No. If you do the stronger one will establish a harmful tyranny. You must interfere to protect the weaker one, and enforce reasonable justice.

Third Daughter Born

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Bjorn of San Anselmo became parents of their third daughter Sunday at Marin General Hospital. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Russell Bjorn of San Rafael and Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Giovanonni of Ross. The baby, who has been named Teresa Anne, is the sister of Gigia and Lisa Bjorn.

Plunging Necklines Paris News

PARIS (UPI)—Plunging necklines, knee-length skirts and Russian furred hoods from the salon of Nina Ricci brought a young exciting look to the Paris winter collections.

The grapevine among the fashion writers who have descended upon Paris for the winter showings is that today's designers in the docket—Jacques Heim, Jacques Griffe and Carven—have followed the trend of covering the knees.

Belgian designer J. H. Crahay, Ricci's style creator, stubbornly kept hemlines short to show about a quarter of the knee. He also presented winter cocktail dresses and evening gowns with eye-catching low necklines.

Crahay's theme was Russian, his silhouette a reminder of Tolstoi's heroines. Face-flattering hoods edged with fur were attached to many of his suits.

The audience of fashion writers appeared to approve an olive green wool suit with a hood edged with leopard.

A dressier black wool suit in the same style was topped with a hood trimmed with white ermine. The hood dropped to the shoulders and became a huge cowl neckline.

Crahay's models were protected against the winter cold by fur-lined coats and capes, big fur collars, and turn-up collars that touched the top of the head. Many of his coats had billowing fullness in the back.

The suit jackets at Nina Ricci's show were low to the hip, with semi-fitted waists and wrist-length sleeves, in line with the current Paris trend. Skirts were narrow and straight with an extra panel of fabric hanging down the front.

Another suit silhouette was a narrow skirt topped by a jacket, collarless, narrow and fitted to the mid-hip.

Daytime wool dresses had bat-wing or raglan sleeves, and insert midriffs that hugged firmly from slightly below the waist to underneath the bustline.

Conical or squarish Russian fur hats gave the Ricci models a Russian look, and the theme was repeated in evening wear. One short black dinner dress had black mink edging around the low neckline. A pink evening coat with a short train sported a hood trimmed with sable.

Crahay's after 5 o'clock wear won enthusiastic applause. One short black cocktail dress had a skirt sprinkled with black feathers. A blue-and-beige brocaded sheath dress was topped with a matching three-quarter length coat with a sable collar.

Bright strawberry-colored floor-length evening gowns had stoles edged with fringe or feathers. Fit for queens and movie stars were his ball gowns with coats in contrasting colors, such as a coat of white satin edged with silver beads over a shimmering gray translucent gown.

Rainbow Girls To Give Degrees

Kay Frame and Mrs. Gerald Hallet, both past worthy advisors of San Rafael Assembly 195, International Order of Rainbow for Girls, will receive the majority degree on Saturday at 1:30 p.m. at Masonic Hall, San Rafael.

Margaret Waschke, worthy advisor, will preside when the degree is conferred, assisted by Judi Vincilione, past worthy advisor, and officers of the Rainbow Assembly.

Add Some Milk

When boiling "old potatoes" use a little milk in the water. This keeps them from turning dark.

EXCITING NEWS comes from the John Donald Campbells, former Marinites. Scotchy Campbell and his wife announced the engagement of their daughter, Gloria, to William Epsen Monday. Gloria returned from Honolulu Wednesday. Gloria and Bill will be married at Old St. Mary's Church in San Francisco at a 4 p.m. ceremony Aug. 18.

The Campbells move tomorrow from their large house on Jackson Street in San Francisco, which they sold to the Spelman Prentices, into a community apartment at Broadway and Fillmore. Mrs. Campbell hopes it will be large enough for the wedding reception which will be attended by relatives and close friends.

And if that is not sufficient for the immediate future, the Campbells leave for Europe 10 days after the wedding. Gloria and Bill will occupy the apartment the two months her parents are away. Then the young couple will move into another apartment.

The Campbells lived at Ridge View Farm, Fairfax, until they sold it to Frank and Mary Baumgarten. Gloria, who made her debut at the San Francisco Cotillion in 1959, has a sister, Mrs. William Callender of Greenbrae (Pat Campbell). Pat made her debut in 1953.

EDWIN N. BENSON will return to his Kent Woodlands home Aug. 6 following a six weeks business trip which took him to Beirut, Lebanon, Riad, Saudi Arabia and Bahrein Islands in the Persian Gulf.

SAILING ON THE LURLINE Aug. 10 for Hawaii will be Mrs. Edward L. Buckley of San Rafael, and Mrs. Stanley Rybicki and Mrs. John Rea Caldwell, two sisters, who live in San Francisco. Mr. Caldwell and Mr. Buckley and the Buckley's sons, Timmie, Peter and Terry, will be on board to say "Happy Sailing" and "Aloha" to the threesome. The ladies will be in Hawaii a month and will visit the outer islands, spending some time at Hani-Maui. Mr. Buckley will fly to Honolulu to join his wife for the celebration of their wedding anniversary.

MARIN TAKES PRIDE in the accomplishments of Gerald Stratford of San Francisco, who spent his boyhood in the county. Gerry and Edward Chandler of Berkeley played in the invitational Gordon Trophy tennis matches against Canada in Seattle and won. The two men have played tennis together since their days at UC and have competed all over the country as a doubles team. They played first double as senior competitors in the International Lawn Tennis matches at the Seattle Tennis Club. In 1954 Gerry and his partner competed in the matches in Boston and came home that time as winners, too.

Gerry recently was a guest of his long-time friend, Hal Wagner at Rafael Racquet Club.

In A Mink Coat

Approximately 70 mink pelts are required to manufacture a full length coat and some 30 go into a cape or jacket, reports the Emba Mink Breeders Association.

Secret Agent Look

"We're all going to look like secret agents this fall," said New York milliner Sally Victor as she opened her fall collection. Many hats in her collection had the "secret agent" look to go with the same Mata Hari influence in other fall ready to wear. There were bowlers, visored caps, and small forward-setting hats with heavy veiling to wrap the face completely.

In City Of Tents Scouts Feel 'Just Like One Big Family'

(Second article on the Marin County Scout patrol attending the Senior Girl Scout Roundup in Button Bay, Vt., written by Skip Shapiro of Fairfax, local patrol member.)

By SKIP SHAPIRO

SKIP SHAPIRO

The two things girls notice most about Roundup are the size of the encampment and the personal friendliness of the 8,500 girls and 1,500 adults.

It is almost paradoxical that in an immense encampment such as this, no one is too busy to stop and say "hello," "hi, you-all," "hello, you guys," "bonjour," "Guten Tag," or "good morning." Sue Klarkowski noted the feeling by saying "it's just like a large family, where everyone knows and likes everyone else."

It is not at all unusual for one to walk down to the Trading Post, and, while standing there, to have a girl come up and say, 'Hi, what's your name and where are you from?" Two girls sit down to swap, and soon a large circle of girls have gathered, each as much interested in who you are as in what you have to swap.

Passing through a section far from our own, Sue Klarkowski and I stumbled over a tent stake into a friendship with a patrol from Connecticut who rescued us and offered the hospitality of their tent. Friendship is everywhere, in girls working together or meeting for the first time.

Roundup, the City of Tents, is Vermont's sixth largest city. To the girls this may be apparent only from the size of the encampment and the number of fellow Scouts. Few of us realize the amount of material utilized to keep us healthy and happy For example, during Roundup, the campers and staff will eat over four and one-half miles of eggs.

Friday, the entire Roundup encampment gathered together in the large arena by Button Bay to watch over 500 of our number participate in a program welcoming all to the third Girl Scout Senior Roundup. The program included messages from both Lady Baden-Powell, founder of Girl Guides, and President John F. Kennedy.

This was the time when unusual bonds between vast size and intimate camaraderie was most apparent. Some 10,000 voices joined in songs.

In spite of its size, Roundup is not at all impersonal, and the friendship open to us with girls from all over the United States and 14 other countries keeps us eager to share in the activities offered to us.

Every girl in the Marin County Roundup patrol agreed that no encampment would be complete without a little rain. Nikie declared that rain made "girls more friendly." Barbie Carter said that "rain helps Girl Scouts work together." Well, it rained. It rained Saturday, starting when we returned from the arena. Through the night we thanked ourselves for our work in putting storm lashing on the tents.

Despite the rain, the Roundup routine of visiting, swapping, talking continued. When the showers came, girls ducked into convenient tents, and sheltered from the rain, met the girls in the tent and talked.

In the afternoon, it cleared long enough for the patrol to go swimming in the Bay, a part of Lake Champlain. All who went agreed that, though muddy, the water was not too cold for swimming. Before returning to camp, Sue Klarkowski and Jill Nelson found the small gray rocks with center holes from which Button Bay takes its name.

The evening was clear enough to have the scheduled campfire with the 44 patrols from Camp "B". Nikie Marculescu joined with two girls from Virginia to present our troop song, and each of the other 10 patrols presented a song or skit to introduce themselves to us.

It was a full, exciting day for all concerned. The rain served to challenge our capacities and bring into play the skills we had spent months learning.

Camp Now, Save Later

CHICAGO (UPI) — A good camping outfit initially costs about as much as a two-week resort hotel bill for a family of four, says E. H. Regnier, University of Illinois rural recreationist.

But if the equipment is durable, you're set for several years, he said. Your main expenses in future vacations will be for food and travel to the camp grounds.

Regnier suggested a tarpaulin tent, 10x10 foot umbrella model, to sleep four. If the front and side flaps open, living space is doubled. An umbrella model also gives more head room.

A sewed-in floor provides protection from puddles, crawling insects and drafts. One person, he said, can put up a pole version in about 10 minutes.

Air mattresses or lightweight summer sleeping bags are replacing cots, he said.

For quick, intense cooking heat, Regnier suggested a two or three burner folding gasoline stove. Be sure to carry cooking fuel in a safety can.

You'll also need a steel or cast aluminum skillet, and plastic dishes are durable and light to pack.

For an ice box, bury and cover with leaves a wooden packing box with a tight-fitting lid.

And for night time safety, you'll need gas lanterns and flashlights.

WASHINGTON WIVES GO WIGGY

Washington's active wives in diplomatic and government circles may soon become wig-happy. About nine wig outlets have opened in the capital—the latest is Wig World—which claims that wigs soon will become a cosmetic item, indispensible in every woman's wardrobe.

Wig World executives are happy to report that the president's wife, Jacqueline, has "several" wigs for the varied demands of her official life. They say that embassy wives in particular have been coming in to try on wigs to meet the grooming standards on hectic diplomatic row.

Wig World owner Allan Savage said women should buy their first wig in their own hair shade. The wigs are priced at between $150 to $200. "The wig business is here to stay," said Savage. "A woman has to have two or three wigs in her wardrobe."

Wigs made of human hair must not be washed. They must be dry-cleaned.

More and more, Washington women are going to their hairdressers and while seated under the dryer they are startled to find the next seat is occupied by the head of a dummy with a wig on it.

Laminates In

Laminates have moved into the higher priced men's wear market. The National Association of Men's Sportswear Buyers reports that new woven wool blend laminates are in demand in topcoat styles and in short jackets. Sweater knit laminated jackets also show through fall lines.

More Support

There's more than support offered in the new foundation garments. The Corset and Brassiere Council reports that new fall collections include paisleys, as all-over pattern or trim; florals, mostly vibrant in color; two-tone effects such as white with black, white with beige, yellow with gray, and beige with brown; and a whole range of reds, blues and golds.

It's Customary To Sneer At Opponent's Creepy Bids

It's customary to sneer at the opponents when they creep up to five of a minor suit one trick at a time. You can afford to follow the custom only if you understand what the bidding means.

Opening lead — ♠ 6

"Very scientific bidding," West jibed as the opponents staggered into five diamonds. Thereupon West led the six of spades, thus proving that he hadn't given a moment's thought to the bidding.

WON IN DUMMY

Declarer won in dummy with the queen of spades, noting the ominous fall of the ten from the East hand.

At rubber bridge declarer would have continued with the ace of spades on the theory that it couldn't hurt to overruff if East ruffed.

Since the hand was played at duplicate, South tried for a maximum score by switching to trumps.

EASY TO TAKE

Declarer picked up the trumps in two rounds, returned to dummy by ruffing a third round of hearts, and discarded both clubs on top spades.

It was then easy to make the rest of the tricks, fulfilling the contract with two overtricks.

West could have defeated the contract by thinking of the unbid suit.

NORTH NOR SOUTH

Neither North nor South could have substantial club strength. If North had club strength he would bid two notrump rather than three diamonds. If South had club strength he would bid three notrump instead of four diamonds.

There was reason to believe that East had the ace of clubs, and West should have opened the king of clubs.

He would continue with a club to the queen, and then a third round of clubs would enable West to win a trump trick with the queen of diamonds whether South ruffed high or low.

Two 14-Year-Old Boys Inmates At Idaho State Prison

BOISE, Idaho (UPI) — Robert Oliver Miller has a new playmate. Marshall Nadeau, 14, entered Idaho State Prison here July 19.

Robert, now 14, was 13 when he became a prisoner last February.

The boys may get to know one another quite well.

Robert is serving a two-year term for the "sniper" shooting of two peace officers. Both the officers were struck in the spine, and probably will be paralyzed for life.

Marshall is serving an indefinite term for bludgeoning his mother in the head with a hammer, then stabbing her. She died a few days later in the hospital.

Warden L. E. Clapp says neither boy receives any special treatment. They mix freely with burglars, murderers and perverts. All are housed in the prison which huddles at the foot of the mountains on Boise's eastern outskirts—a few hundred yards from a residential section.

There is no provision in Idaho law for special treatment for some youthful offenders.

If a crime against a person is committed, the prosecuting attorney has the right to say whether a child is to be tried as a juvenile or adult.

A child tried as an adult and found guilty is imprisoned with other adults. There are no separate facilities.

Not everyone in Idaho is happy about this situation.

The Idaho Children's Commission was created by the last legislature to study the problem and made recommendations.

Jeanne Jewett, commission secretary, said one recommendation will be that the juvenile court shall have original jurisdiction in such crimes. Juvenile authorities will determine whether youthful offenders shall be tried as youths or adults.

Marshall, who could be eligible for parole in 10 years, seemed puzzled after Third District Judge Merlin Young pronounced sentence.

A few hours later he exchanged his neatly-pressed slacks and checkered sportcoat for prison garb.

Warden Clapp hopes Marshall will be easier to handle than Robert. "We have time to work with the Nadeau boy," he said. The warden explained in similar cases in the past "We've had good luck" with rehabilitation, and the youths have become useful citizens.

Clapp is worried about Robert. "I don't think we're helping him, I worry about what will happen when he gets out.

"He can do his time standing on his head, and he knows it," the warden said.

Clapp said Robert was a serious disciplinary problem at first. He used to challenge guards to put him in isolation, threatening "the papers will fix you." Other prisoners added to the problem by making a hero out of the youth.

"Why didn't you shoot the cops in the head?" prisoners chided.

"We bent a long way trying to reach this boy, finally we had the chaplain and his aunt work with him, and I had some long talks with the boy," the warden explained.

"Things are a little better now, he's beginning to adjust."

Clapp seemed hopeful that Marshall would be less of a problem. The boy's only hope for freedom lies in his ability to adjust and accept rehabilitation.

Unlike Robert, who knows he will be released in 19 more months, Marshall could spend a lifetime behind bars.

Combined Grades Study Is Planned

The Larkspur School District board plans to hold a special meeting in November to tackle the controversial question of whether to combine the seventh and eighth grades of all four of its schools at one school building.

Board Chairman Pauline Secor made the announcement today in amplification of discussion at Tuesday night's board meeting, when several parents in the audience of about 25 persons strenuously objected to such a merger.

The issue came up when the board received reports from the seventh and eighth grade teachers and from principals of all four schools. The reports recommended the merger, provided sufficient personnel, space and equipment could be obtained.

The teachers' and principals' reports agreed in general with a recommendation several weeks ago by the school district's seventh and eighth grade study committee. Parent protest against that recommendation delayed school board action.

Mrs. Secor told the parents no change will be made in the seventh and eighth grade teaching in the next school year.

"We won't begin to try to make a decision at least until January when we are supposed to consider personnel for the 1963-64 school year. So, we couldn't make any change before September, 1963," Mrs. Secor said.

She said regarding the November meeting, "We want to meet and give all the people a chance to express their views after the special joint meeting by the four parent-teacher associations."

Mrs. J. W. McClintock of 20 Buena Vista, Corte Madera, president of the San Clemente School P-TA, said date of the joint meeting was not yet determined but probably would be the second or third week of November, in San Clemente School auditorium.

The Larkspur School District board also:

1. Received approval from the state Division of School House Planning of plans for two new rooms for San Clemente School and six at Neil Cummins School, but with recommendation that the San Clemente kindergarten room be of 1,350 square feet instead of 1,064 square feet.
2. Decided to hold a four-day meeting for all teachers, Aug. 28-31.
3. Hired Mrs. Alida Wilson of El Cerrito as district librarian at $6,600 a year; Rosalind Chan as vocal music teacher at $4,800; Mrs. Ermina Bodine as fourth grade teacher at Henry C. Hall School at $6,900, and Helen Siegel as eighth grade teacher at Niel Cummins School at $5,000.
4. Decided to hold back-to-school night at 7:30 p.m., Sept 26 at the district's schools.
5. Decided to continue sending San Clemente seventh and eighth grade pupils by bus to Neil Cummins School at least until San Clemente's additions are completed.
6. Renewed contract with Patchett's Bus and Transportation Co. of Newman to take pupils to and from schools in two buses. The cost was estimated at the same rate as last year, "roughly $10,000."
7. Agreed on renewal of contract with San Francisco State College under which college students do "intern teaching" in the Larkspur district.

Foreign Students Plan Study Of Red Cross

Ten foreign students will live with Marin families next week while they learn about American Red Cross activities.

The students are among 45 teen-agers who will arrive this weekend at San Francisco International Airport. They will be good ambassadors as well as participants in a new Red Cross program to acquaint them with Red Cross activities and life in the United States.

After spending a few days in San Francisco, the 10 students assigned to Marin will arrive at San Rafael Red Cross headquarters Aug. 3 at 11:30 a.m.

The students and the families with whom they will live Aug. 3 through Aug. 9 are:

Adelio Salfano, 20, of Italy —Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Allsman of Tiburon; Ki Moon Ban, 17, of Korea—Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Patterson of Novato; Jeanne Myers, 17, of Alberta, Canada—Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Green of Belvedere; Jocelyn Brown, 17, of New Zealand—Mr. and Mrs. Roy W. Lally of Fairfax.

Neriman Serma Anilmis, 19, of Turkey—Mr. and Mrs. Thurman Barnes Jr. of Marin City; Carlos Augilera, 19, of Chile—Mr. and Mrs. August F. Wagele of Greenbrae; Carmen Goddard of Panama—Dr. and Mrs. Rafael G. Dufficy of San Rafael; Friederike Warchol, 20, of Germany — Mr. and Mrs. Louis Boss of San Rafael; Kamal Gupta of India—Mr. and Mrs. Harold J. Truett of San Anselmo.

Another student is expected from Guatemala and will be assigned to a family later.

While in Marin the students, all members of foreign Red Cross organizations, will attend discussions Aug. 6 and 7 on the Red Cross, education, social welfare, education, religion, international relations, art and community services.

A youth forum will be held Aug. 8 in Pennafort Hall at Dominican College, San Rafael, and in the afternoon the students will be guests at a reception in the Hamilton Air Force Base Officers Club.

They will leave Aug. 9 for Portland, Ore., and will join 100 other foreign Red Cross delegates later in Washington, D. C.

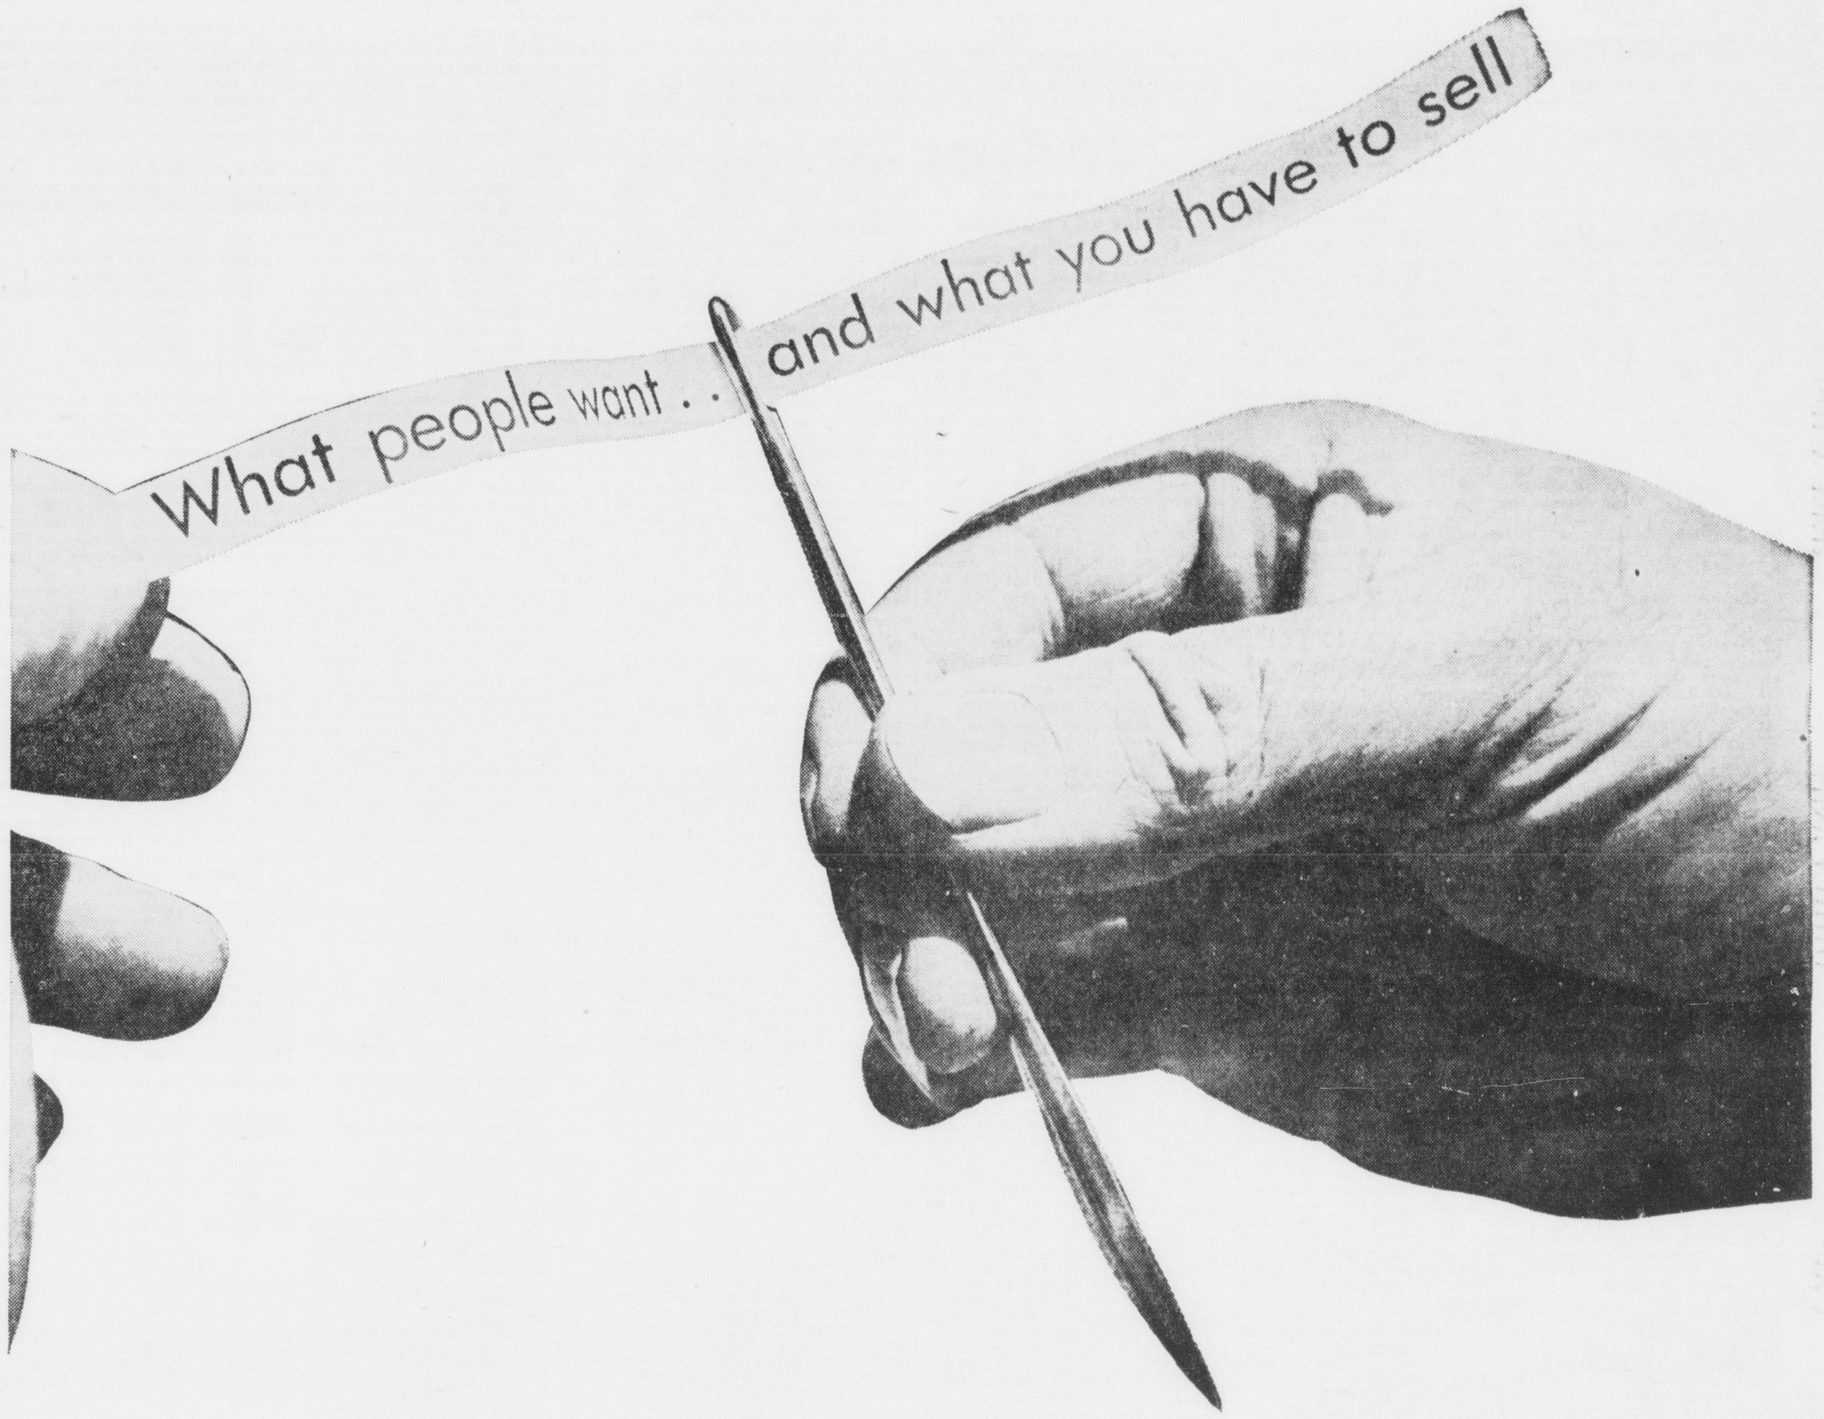
Bedroom Fire Caused By Electric Blanket

Fire, caused by an electric blanket, caused $1,500 damage to the bedroom of Mrs. H. Lee of 37 Madrona Lane, Mill Valley yesterday.

Mrs. Lee awoke smelling smoke, according to Fire Chief Leslie Armager. He said damage from fire and smoke to the bed, floor and other furniture was estimated at $1,500.



Thread the needle, make the sale

As a retailer you're in an exciting business. And a tough one. You deal with merchandise, and with minds not yet made up to buy.

How do you bring goods and people's wants together? Obviously, you advertise. And what makes the sale? Not magic. Not just price. But something you've always known on the sales floor:

—that the closer you fit merchandise, price and value to the public's exact wants, the closer you are to sales.

That's why every advertisement should "thread the needle" . . . bringing what people want and what you have to sell into direct line.

That's where the Independent-Journal puts you one up in the buyer's eye. It gives you perfect alignment with your customers and new buyers. For they're already buying this newspaper . . . not just for news of the world but for news of you and what you have to sell.

Imagine, more than two-thirds of the families in this county read the I-J, eyes open, ready to buy—providing you put the right merchandise into their line of sight!

To thread the needle, look to the Independent-Journal. Everyone else does.

Through the needle's eye with research

Field Research Company, San Francisco, nationally respected research organization, made these findings on all newspapers circulated in Marin County—both metropolitan and county papers. Aside from its first rank in coverage of Marin County,

THE INDEPENDENT-JOURNAL RANKS FIRST ON THESE BASIC SALES-MAKING MEASUREMENTS

- Most often has advertisements that are useful.
- Most often relied upon for food store advertising.
- Most often turned to for general retail and clothing store advertising.

Said check shall be forfeited or said bond shall become payable to said District in case the bidder depositing the same does not, within fifteen days after written notice that the contract has been awarded to him, enter into a contract with the District, the faithful performance of which shall be secured by an undertaking in the amount of one hundred per cent (100%) of the amount so bid, with sureties satisfactory to the said Sanitary Board, and which shall be accompanied by a labor and material bond in a sum equal to fifty per cent (50%) of the amount of said bid, under the provisions of Chapter 3, comprising Sections 4200 to 4208, inclusive, of the Government Code of the State of California.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that on July 17, 1962, the Sanitary Board adopted a resolution determining the general prevailing rate of per diem wages in the locality in which the public work herein provided is to be done for each craft or type of workman needed to execute the contract, a copy of which wage scale is contained in and made a part of the specifications for said work, to which reference is hereby made for a full and detailed description thereof.

The board reserves the privilege of rejecting any and all bids or to waive any irregularities or informalities in any bid or in the bidding.

No bidder may withdraw his bid for a period of ten (10) days after the date set for the opening of bids.

Plans and specifications may be examined at the office of the District, 500 Tamalpais Drive, Corte Madera, California, and obtained at the office of Brown and Caldwell, Consulting Engineers, 66 Mint Street, San Francisco, California, upon deposit of $10.00 per set, $5.00 of which will be refunded if the set or sets delivered are returned in good condition within ten (10) days after the bid opening.

REP. MILLER SAYS:

Taxpayers Affected By 4 Proposals

By REP. CLEM MILLER

WASHINGTON—Every taxpayer will be affected by the decisions on four different income tax revision proposals.

The first change has already been made, the new depreciation schedule for business and farm equipment.

The second is the interim tax revision bill approved by the House and now being considered by the Senate.

Third, there is the general tax reform package now being drafted by the administration.

Finally, there is the proposal for an immediate tax cut.

Here are details of the four proposals:

New Depreciation Schedule —Treasury Secretary Douglas Dillon announced on July 11 a liberalized schedule of depreciation allowances. The schedule sets rules and guidelines by which funds may be set aside each year for use later to replace worn or obsolete equipment.

The schedule revises the rate at which a business may write-off the useful lives of its assets. Changes apply to business concerns and individual businessmen, including farmers and other self-employed persons.

The new depreciation rates amount to a tax cut for business and industry. Dillon estimates they will mean a tax savings to businesses—and a tax loss to the Treasury—of 1.5 billion dollars. The old schedule allowed an average depreciable life of 19 years; the new schedule, 12 years. About 5,000 separate items in the old schedule are simplified and consolidated into 100 categories.

Interim Tax Revision — The Senate finance committee is now working over this year's tax revision bill already approved by the House. Soon — possibly tomorrow—the committee will recommend major changes. As passed by the House, tax gain and tax loss would be balanced. The expected Senate committee version would result in a net loss of about 650 million dollars.

Keystone of both House and Senate bills is a tax credit aimed at encouraging investment in new productive equipment. Businessmen and farmers could reduce their tax bills by up to 7 per cent of what they spent during the year for new equipment.

This would mean a 1.8-billion-dollar tax loss to the Treasury. To make up for this loss, the House bill contains a series of tax "loophole" closing provisions. These include a tightening up of business entertainment deductions, withholding of taxes due on interest and dividends, taxation of overseas income and new tax schedules for cooperatives and various savings institutions.

General Tax Reform — The Treasury Department is working on a massive overhaul of the entire antiquated patchwork federal tax system. The president's recommendations will be made to Congress early next year.

One recommendation may be to reduce the top-bracket income tax rate from 91 per cent to about 65 per cent, and to reduce the bottom-bracket rate from 20 per cent to about 15 per cent.

Immediate Tax Cut—Strong pressures are building up for an immediate across-the-board income tax cut as a recession-prevention measure.

The kids bowled us over!

3,964 Marin youngsters had a whee of a time during the I-J Free Bowling Week, July 2-6

Almost 4,000 youngsters turned out and bowled a total of 11,892 games during the special summer bowling recreation week, sponsored by the Independent-Journal in cooperation with Country Club Bowl, Greenbrae Lanes and Nave Lanes.

Great days, great fun. And with the kids in good hands, Mom (maybe) had a chance to relax.

Interesting thing about this huge turnout is that each youngster, in order to enter, clipped one or more coupons from the Independent-Journal—the free "ticket" of admission. Which proves that youngsters keep up with current events, just like their parents, by reading the Independent-Journal.

It was a pleasure to present this free bowling week as a public service. But we're still a bit bowled over at the turnout. Looks as if both the youngsters and the I-J are well-read.
